Annual Meeting Programme

Devotional Exercises, . . MRS. G. C. YEISLEY, New York

9:30 A.M.

MORNING SESSION

MRS. DARWIN R. JAMES, Presiding

Hymn 667—

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love Divine hath led us in the past;
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide, and Stay;
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace Divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

Reading of Scripture, . . . MRS. R. G. MCNIECE, Utah

Prayer, ... MRS. R. B. GODDARD, California

The Field, REV. G. F. MCAFEE, D.D., Superintendent of Schools

Freedmen's Department, ... MRS. F. D. PALMER

The Treasury, ... MISS S. F. LINCOLN

Hymn 158—

Glory to God on high!
Let praises fill the sky;
Praise ye His Name:
Angels His Name adore,
Who all our sorrows bore;
And saints cry evermore,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

Join all the human race
Our Lord and God to bless,
Praise ye His Name:
In Him we will rejoice,
Making a cheerful noise,
And say with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

The Work of the Woman's Board,

MRS. J. F. PINGRY, Acting Secretary

Mountaineers, . . . MISS DORA M. FISH, Marshall, N. C.

Alaskans, . . . MRS. TILLIE K. PAUL, Sitka, Alaska

Offering for San Juan Hospital

Presentation of Missionaries

Announcements,

MRS. CHARLES L. THOMPSON, Chairman of Committee

Hymn 668—

Arise, O Lord of Hosts;
Be jealous for Thy Name,
And drive from out our coasts
The sins that put to shame:
O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
And guard and bless our fatherland.

The Church of Thy dear Son
Inflame with love's pure fire;
Bind her once more in one,
And life and truth inspire:
O Lord, stretch forth Thy mighty hand,
And guard and bless our fatherland.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2 P.M.

Hymn 365—

Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Thy mighty arm make bare;
Speak with the voice that wakes the dead,
And make Thy people hear.

Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Disturb this sleep of death;
Quicken the smouldering embers now
By Thine almighty breath.

Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Give pentecostal showers:
Thy glory shall be all Thine own,
The blessing, Lord, be ours.

Prayer, ... MRS. E. P. HILL, Oregon

Responsive Reading, . MRS. THEODORE WESTON, New York

President's Address, ... MRS. DARWIN R. JAMES

Young People's Work, . . . MISS M. JOSEPHINE PETRIE

Loyalty, MRS. DELOS E. FINKS, Editor of Home Mission Monthly

Over Sea and Land, ... MISS LUCILLE FLANIGEN

Hymn 92—

Praise the Lord, ye heavens adore Him,
Praise Him, angels, in the height;
Sun and moon, rejoice before Him;
Praise Him, all ye stars and light.
Praise the Lord, for He hath spoken;
Worlds His mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken,
For their guidance hath He made.

Praise the Lord, for He is glorious;
Never shall His promise fail;
God hath made His saints victorious;
Sin and death shall not prevail.
Praise the God of our salvation;
Hosts on High, His power proclaim;
Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Laud and magnify His Name.

Indians, . { MRS. F. S. HERNDON, Tucson School, Arizona
MISS AMELIA J. FROST, Rossfork, Idaho

Offering

Freedmen, . . . MRS. J. C. MARQUIS, Chester, S. C.

Mormons, . . MISS SERENA NEILSON, Mt. Pleasant, Utah

Mexicans, . MISS PRUDENCE CLARK, Chimayo, New Mexico

Hymn 666—

God bless our native land,
Firm may she ever stand,
Through storm and night;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do Thou our country save
By Thy great might.

For her our prayers shall rise
To God above the skies;
On Him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry,
God save the State.

Prayer and Benediction, . . REV. WILTON MERLE SMITH, D. D.

INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY.

Leader—AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER?—Genesis iv: 9.

Response—Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us?—Malachi ii: 10.

Leader—One is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.—Matthew xxiii: 8.

Response—Son of man, * * * speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the Lord. —Ezekiel xxxiii: 30.

Leader—Son of man, I have made thee a watchman, * * * therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.—Ezekiel iii: 17.

Response—When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thy hand.—Ezekiel iii: 18.

Leader—Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.—Ezekiel iii: 19.

Response—And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner: that he may live with thee. —Leviticus xxv: 35.

Leader—For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.—Deuteronomy xv: 11.

Response—For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel.—Ezekiel iii: 5.

Leader—Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?—Isaiah vi: 8.

Response—Then said I, Here am I: send me.—Isaiah vi: 8.

Leader—I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me.—Habakkuk ii: 1.

Response—And the Lord said * * * Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.—Exodus iv: 11, 12.

Leader—And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matthew x: 7.

Response—Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.—I. Timothy v: 20.

Leader—In the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.—Philippians ii: 15.

Response—Mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off.—Exodus xxiii: 23.

Leader—I will not drive them out from before thee in one year. * * * By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land. —Exodus xxiii: 29, 30.

Response—Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.—Exodus xxiii: 32.

Leader—Ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called.—I. Corinthians i: 26.

Response—But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty.—I. Corinthians i: 27.

Leader—Let us send abroad unto our brethren everywhere. * * * And let us bring again the ark of our God to us.—I. Chronicles xiii: 2, 3.

Response—The night is far spent, the day is at hand.—Romans xiii: 12.

Leader—I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. —Romans xii: 1.

Response—Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.—I. Corinthians xv: 58.

MORNING SESSION

MRS. DARWIN R. JAMES, Presiding

Hymn 41—

When morning gilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Alike at work and prayer,
To Jesus I repair;
May Jesus Christ be praised.

To Thee, O God, above,
I cry with glowing love,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
This song of sacred joy,
It never seems to cloy;
May Jesus Christ be praised.

Does sadness fill my mind,
A solace here I find;
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Or fades my earthly bliss,
My comfort still is this:
May Jesus Christ be praised.

Reading of Scripture, . MRS. J. V. MILLIGAN, Oregon

Prayer, ... MRS. W. M. FERRY, Utah

The Field,
REV. G. F. MCAFEE, D.D., Superintendent of Schools

Freedmen's Department, . . . MRS. V. P. BOGGS

The Treasury, ... MISS S. F. LINCOLN

Hymn 1133—

Our country's voice is pleading,
Ye men of God, arise!
His providence is leading,
The land before you lies;
Day-gleams are o'er it brightening,
And promise clothes the soil;
Wide fields, for harvest whitening,
Invite the reaper's toil.

The love of Christ unfolding,
Speed on from east to west,
Till all, His cross beholding,
In Him are fully blest.
Great Author of salvation,
Haste, haste the glorious day,
When we, a ransomed nation,
Thy scepter shall obey.

Announcements, MRS. SAMUEL MINOR, Chairman of Committee

Hymn 1113—

Send forth Thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to Thy peaceful fold.

Send them Thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

2 P.M.

Hymn 726—

Forward! be our watchword,
Steps and voices joined;
Seek the things before us,
Not a look behind;
Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head;
Who shall dream of shrinking,
By our Captain led?
Forward through the desert
Through the toil and fight:
Jordan flows before us,
Zion beams with light.

Forward, flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth;
Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth:
Sick, they ask for healing,
Blind, they grope for day;
Pour upon the nations
Wisdom's loving ray.
Forward out of error,
Leave behind the night;
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

Prayer, . . . MRS. S. P. HARBISON, Pennsylvania

Responsive Reading, . . MRS. E. P. MOSSMAN, Oregon

Hymn 517—

Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A guide, a Comforter bequeathed,
With us to dwell.

He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue;
All-powerful as the wind he came,
And viewless, too.

Spirit of purity and grace!
Our weakness pitying see;
Oh, make our hearts Thy dwelling-place,
And worthier Thee!

President's Address, . . MRS. DARWIN R. JAMES

Home Mission Monthly, PRESENTED BY MRS. H. C. OLIN

Over Sea and Land, . MISS LUCILLE FLANIGEN, Editor

Hymn 1121—

We are living, we are dwelling,
In a grand and awful time,
In an age on ages telling;
To be living is sublime.
Hark, the waking up of nations,
Gog and Magog to the fray:
Hark, what soundeth? is creation
Groaning for its latter day?

Worlds are charging, heaven beholding,
Thou hast but an hour to fight;
Now the blazoned cross unfolding,
On, right onward, for the right!
On! let all the soul within you
For the truth's sake go abroad.
Strike, let every nerve and sinew
Tell on ages, tell for God.

Freedmen, . . . MISS LUCY LANEY, Augusta, Ga.

Mexicans, . MISS LEVA T. GRANGER, San Pablo, Col.

Singing, . BY SPANISH SCHOOL, Los Angeles, Cal.

Mountaineers, . . MISS JULIA FRASER, California

Indians, . . MISS KATE MCBETH, Idaho
MISS M. E. CHASE, California
MISS HELEN W. CLARK, Washington

Prayer, ... REV. A. WEBB, PH.D.

Hymn 1209—

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrims' pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

Our fathers' God! to thee
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

Benediction, . . REV. CHARLES L. THOMPSON, D.D.

The Power of the Holy Spirit

Leader—He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.—Revelation ii: 29.

Response—Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you.—Acts i:8.

Leader—John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.—Acts i:5.

Response—On my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit.—Acts ii:18.

VITAL QUESTION

Leader—Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? —Acts xix:2.

Response—What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?—I. Corinthians vi:19.

Leader—Ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ * * * written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God.—II. Corinthians iii:3.

PROGRESS

Response—If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.—Galations v:25.

Leader—For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. —Ephesians iv:12.

GROWTH

Response—Till we all come * * * unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.— Ephesians iv:13.

THE GREAT MISSION

Leader—The spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.—Isaiah lxi:1.

Response—I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring.—Isaiah xliv:3.

FREELY GIVEN

Leader—If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children; how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?—Luke xi:13.

Response—God giveth not the Spirit by measure.—John iii:34.

Leader—I will pour upon the house of David, the spirit of grace and of supplications.—Zacariah xii:10.

Response—And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be delivered.— Joel ii:32.

Leader—For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.—Galations v:5.

Response—This I say then, walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.—Galations v:16.

RESULT

Leader—And I will pour out my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statues, and ye shall keep my judgments to do them.—Ezekiel xxxvi: 27.

Response—And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers: and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.—Ezekiel xxxvi: 28.

Leader—But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.—Jude i: 21.

FAITHFULNESS REWARDED

Response—Until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.—Isaiah xxxii:15.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A.

1879--1904

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

BUFFALO, N. Y.

MAY 20TH, 1904

1879

The Board highly appreciates and gratefully acknowledges the sympathy and aid of the women of the churches in the important work committed by the General Assembly to our care. The cause of Home Missions has always appealed to them by every motive which patriotism, charity and love of Christ inspire. But there is room for greater enlargement of their active zeal. We should rejoice to see every woman in the Presbyterian Church contributing in some way to a cause upon which the growth and prosperity of the church and her future ability to preach the gospel in all the earth so largely depend.

HENRY KENDALL,
Secretary Board of Home Missions.

1904

Twenty-five splendid years call for a word of greeting from the Board of Home Missions. How short the time in the history of an organization! How fruitful in results! Who that witnessed or shared in the feeble beginnings when, on December twelfth, 1878, the Woman's Executive Committee was organized, could have predicted the expansion of these years!

They who seek for its secret will find it in two words—consecration and organization. For lack of the first, chariot wheels drag. For lack of the second, the wheels interlock and enthusiasm evaporates. The two combined constitute the power of every great movement.

The Board congratulates the Woman's Board on the past and on the future. Your service will grow larger; your example will become contagious; until the Lord's hosts shall become His army, compact in its lines, pervasive in its discipline and irresistible in its devotion.

CHARLES L. THOMPSON,
Secretary Board of Home Missions.

Many, O Lord, my God, are Thy wonderful works which Thou hast done, and Thy thoughts which are to us-ward; they cannot be reckoned up in order unto Thee; if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.—Ps. xl:5.

The Lord giveth the word;
The women that publish the tidings are a great host.—Ps. lxviii: 11.

It would seem in this, as every great cause of righteousness, that women are God's appointed leaders. Whether it is natural intuition or divine inspiration, they seem to plan more wisely and work more efficiently.—Resolution General Assembly, 1890.

Nor must we forget that our Home Mission efforts are vigorously and enthusiastically aided by the auxiliary Woman's Board, and that this Board exhibits a gift for organization and executive work not surpassed by any agency in our church.

D. STUART DODGE,
President Board of Home Missions.

The Woman's Board, in doing its work among the exceptional population, is supplementing and greatly assisting in advancing the work of no less than six of the Boards of the Church.

GEO. F. McAFEE,
Superintendent of Schools.

Talk ye of all his wondrous works.—Ps. cv:2.

Hymn 1156
Laudes Domini

O God, beneath Thy guiding hand,
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea,
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With prayer and psalm they worshiped Thee.

Laws, freedom, truth and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves,
And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

And here Thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

Hymn 447

Glory to God on high
Let heaven and earth reply,
"Praise ye his name!"
His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore;
Sing loud for evermore,
"Worthy the Lamb."

While they around the throne
Cheerfully join in one,
Praising His name,—
Ye who have felt His blood
Sealing your peace with God,
Sound His dear name abroad,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

Hymn 471 2:00 o'clock

All hail the power of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

O that with yonder sacred throng,
We at His feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Anniversary Hymn—Composed by Mrs. DARWIN R. JAMES.

It is Thy way, dear Lord,
Always Thy way to bless;
These five and twenty years attest
Thy loving faithfulness.

Not ours to choose the path
That through these years has run,
We have but wrought in following Thee,
The work by Thee begun.

We have but wrought with Thee,
As Thou hast given us grace
To bring into Thy wondrous light
Those who shall see Thy face.

Thy face, O vision blest!
O hope beyond compare!
If, after years of patient toil,
We may that glory share.

But not alone, O Lord!
Redeemed, but not alone,
Throughout our land with wondrous power,
Make Thy salvation known.

And ever to Thy name,
Most Blessed Trinity,
Ceaseless our songs of praise shall rise
Throughout eternity.

Hymn 734

Jesus, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
And although the way be cheerless,
We will follow, calm and fearless;
Guide us by Thy hand
To our Fatherland.

Jesus, still lead on,
Till our rest be won;
Heavenly Leader, still direct us,
Still support, console, protect us,
Till we safely stand
In our Fatherland.

Prayer and Benediction - - - Rev. D. STUART DODGE, D.D.
President Board of Home Missions

And now may the Lord bless us all, and increase us more and more in this and every good word and work, to the glory of His Holy Name.

MRS. F. E. H. HAINES.

August 27, 1879.

TO THE FAITHFUL IN CHRIST JESUS

LEADER—Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things.—Matt. xxv: 21.

RESPONSE—Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.—Eph. i: 2.

LEADER—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.—Eph. i: 3.

RESPONSE—According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.—Eph. i: 4.

LEADER—Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself.—Eph. i: 9.

RESPONSE—That in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth.—Eph. i: 10.

LEADER—Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.—I Cor. iv: 2.

RESPONSE—Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household?—Matt. xxiv: 45.

LEADER—Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after.—Heb. iii: 5.

RESPONSE—And princes sought to find occasion against Daniel; ..... but could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful.—Dan. vi: 4.

LEADER—Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord.—I Cor. iv: 17.

RESPONSE—I made treasurers over the treasuries, ... for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.—Neh. xiii: 13.

LEADER—Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land.—Ps. ci: 6.

RESPONSE—I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, ... for that he counted me faithful.—I Tim. i: 12.

LEADER—I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation.—Ps. xl: 10.

RESPONSE—With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.—Ps. lxxxix: 1.

LEADER—Know therefore that the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations.—Deut. vii: 9.

RESPONSE—Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.—Rev. ii: 10.

LEADER—Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.—II Cor. vii: 1.

RESPONSE—Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.—II Cor. xiii: 11.

ALL—Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.—Eph. iv: 13.

Ye that are the Lord's remembrancers, take ye no rest, and give Him no rest, till He establish and till He make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.—Isa. lxii: 6, 7.

Women of the Home Mission army of the Presbyterian Church, truest patriots of the American Republic and of the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ, no higher service can you render than by sending the Bible and the Christian teacher to the hitherto neglected ones wherever our flag holds sway.

Then for the world's sake, as well as America's sake, let us stand firm in our resolve to spread throughout our land the knowledge of God's word.

MRS. DARWIN R. JAMES,
President Woman's Board of Home Missions.

Prayer is essential! Money and information do not compass the whole matter. Give, study, pray—this is the trinity of essentials to a forward movement.

MRS. DELOS E. FINKS,
Editor Home Mission Monthly.

One hundred and ten churches as a resultant of the work of the Woman's Board. An average of one every three months since the establishment of the first mission school twenty-five years ago.

MRS. JOHN F. PINGRY.

Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?—Esther iv: 14.

10 o'clock Meeting called to order by the President
MRS. DARWIN R. JAMES

Hymn 350

Through good report and evil,
Lord, still guided by thy faithful word,
Our staff, our buckler, and our sword,
We follow Thee.

Thou hast passed on before our face;
Thy footsteps on the way we trace;
O keep us, aid us by Thy grace;
We follow Thee.

O Master, point Thou out the way,
Nor suffer Thou our steps to stray;
Then in the path that leads to day
We follow Thee.

Whom have we in the heaven above,
Whom on this earth, save Thee, to love?
Still in Thy light we onward move;
We follow Thee.

Reading of the Scripture - MRS. H. C. CAMPBELL, Oregon

Hymn 666

God bless our native land
Firm may she ever stand
Through storm and night:
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do Thou our country save
By Thy great might.

For her our prayers shall rise
To God, above the skies;
On Him we wait;
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To Thee aloud we cry,
God save the State.

REVIVE THOU US

Leader—O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.—Hab. 3—2.

Response—Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old.—Isa. 51—9.

Leader—Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.—Isa. 32—15.

Response—Thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.—Isa. 57—15.

Leader—Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the Lord of hosts.
Mal. 3—7.

Response—Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.—Mal. 3—10.

Leader—And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.—Joel 2—28.

Response—And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.—Joel 2—29.

Leader—Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord; his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.—Hos. 6—3.

Response—Come, let us return unto the Lord.—Hos. 6—1.

Leader—They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.
—Hos. 14—7.

Response—Thus saith the Lord: * * Fear not, * * I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring.—Isa. 44—2-3.

Leader—Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.—Acts 1—8.

Response—Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?
Ps. 85—6.

Leader—Shew us thy mercy, O Lord, and grant us thy salvation.—Ps. 85—7.

Response—Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.—Ps. 85—9.

Hymn 365

Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Create soul-thirst for Thee;
And hungering for the Bread of Life.
O may our spirits be.

Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Exalt Thy precious Name;
And, by the Holy Ghost, our love
For Thee and Thine inflame.

Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Give pentecostal showers;
The glory shall be all Thine own,
The blessing, Lord, be ours.

Hymn 352

Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home:
Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle-song.

Lead on, O King Eternal,
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And holiness shall whisper
The sweet Amen of peace;
For not with swords loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums,
But deeds of love and mercy,
Thy heavenly kingdom comes.

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies,
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love Divine hath led us in the past;
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide and Stay;
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace Divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

Hymn 352

Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home:
Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal:
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;

Annual Address of the President

Hymn 389

Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
The sun that lights its shining folds,
The cross on which the Saviour died.

Fling out the banner! angels bend
In anxious silence o'er the sign,
And vainly seek to comprehend
The wonder of the love Divine.

Fling out the banner! sin-sick souls
That sink and perish in the strife,
Shall touch in faith its radiant hem,
And spring immortal into life.

Fling out the banner! wide and high,
Seaward and skyward, let it shine:
Nor skill, nor might, nor merit ours;
We conquer only in that sign.

Hymn 378

O praise our God to-day,
His constant mercy bless,
Whose love hath helped us on our way,
And granted us success.

His arm the strength imparts,
Our daily toil to bear;
His grace alone inspires our hearts
Each other's load to share.

O happiest work below,
Earnest of joy above,
To sweeten many a cup of woe
By deeds of holy love!

THE SHEPHERD LEADER.

LEADER—Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.—Ps. 80—1.

RESPONSE—Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and come and save us.—Ps. 80—2.

LEADER—My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill; yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.—Ezek. 34—6.

RESPONSE—Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. —Ezek. 34—11.

LEADER—As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. —Ezek. 34—12.

RESPONSE—I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.—Ezek. 34—15.

LEADER—I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick.—Ezek. 34—16.

RESPONSE—I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. —John 10—14.

LEADER—And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.—John 10—4.

RESPONSE—And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers.—John 10—5.

LEADER—My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. —John 10—27.

RESPONSE—I lay down my life for the sheep.—John 10—15.

LEADER—And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand,—John 10—28.

RESPONSE—The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.—Ps. 23—1.

LEADER—He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.—Ps. 23—2.

RESPONSE—He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.—Ps. 23—3.

LEADER—Ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.—1 Pet. 2—25.

RESPONSE—And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.—Ezek. 34—31.

LEADER—Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind. —1 Pet. 5—2.

RESPONSE—And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.—1 Pet. 5—4.

LEADER—Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. AMEN.—Heb. 13—20—21.

Hymn 52

Spirit Divine, attend our prayers,
And make this house Thy home;
Descend with all Thy gracious powers,
O come, great Spirit, come.

Come as the fire and purge our hearts,
Like sacrificial flame;
Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's Name.

Come as the dove and spread Thy wings,
The wings of peaceful love;
And let Thy Church on earth become Blest as Thy Church above.

Spirit Divine, attend our prayer
Make a lost world Thy home;
Descend with all Thy gracious power
O come, great Spirit, come.

The King of love my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am His
And He is mine forever.

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house forever.

Hymn 402

Thou who didst come to bring
On Thy redeeming wing
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,
O now to all mankind
Let there be light.

Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving, holy Dove,
Speed forth Thy flight;
Move o'er the waters' face
Bearing the lamp of grace,
And in earth's darkest place
Let there be light.

Holy and blessed Three,
Glorious Trinity,
Wisdom, Love, Might!
Boundless as ocean's tide
Rolling in fullest pride
Through the world, far and wide,
Let there be light.

Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home:
Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal:
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er Thy face appears;

A Song of Degrees

By Charles Lemuel Thompson, D.D.

Inspire, O Lord, our pleasant praise,
Our comely anthem guide,
That like Thy goodness be our song,
So deep, so high, so wide.

To the tune of "The Son of God goes forth to War."

We praise Thee for the peace that reigns
Where men as brothers meet,
And for the bounty that has filled
Ours barns with finest wheat.

We praise Thee for the bars of law
That strengthen all our gates,
And for Thy Word, that running swift
A rule of right creates.

For snow like wool and scattered frost,
For winds that healing blow,
For the word sent forth that melts the ice
And makes the waters flow.

But deeper, yet, O Lord, to Thee,
We would our praises speak,
In that Thou healest broken hearts
And liftest up the meek.

The outcast ones Thou gatherest,
The wounded Thou dost heal,
And to the tempted and the tried
Thy mercy dost reveal.

For this let joyful cymbals clash,
For this let organs roll,
Our God beyond His choicest gifts
Himself gives to the soul.

So lift the choral, sun and moon
And all ye stars of light,
Ye angels, all ye hosts of His,
Praise Him in heaven's height!

And all ye dragons of the deep,
Fire, hail and stormy wind,
Ye hills and mountains, cedar trees,
Praise the Eternal Mind!

And when the crashing anthem breaks
Through heaven, o'er earth and sea,
Let all the people cry, "Amen,"
And lift their hearts to Thee.

When shall the listening nations learn,
As oceans waft the song,
Thy goodness and Thy judgments, Lord,
Have made our mountain strong!

RESPONSIVE READING

Thirtieth Annual Meeting Woman's Board of Home Missions

A Song of Degrees

Leader—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!—Ps. 107–8.

Response—He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.—Deut. 10:21.

Leader—He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.—Ps. 147:14.

Response—I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid.—Lev. 26:6.

All—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of men.—Ps. 107:8.

Leader—He that keepeth the law, happy is he.—Prov. 29:18.

Response—One law shall be to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.—Ex. 12:49.

Leader—The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.—Ps. 119:72.

Response—He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.—Ps. 147:16.

Leader—He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold.—Ps. 147:17.

Response—He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.—Ps. 147:18.

Leader—He showeth his word unto Jacob; his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.—Ps. 147:19.

Response—He hath not dealt so with any nation; and as for his judgments, they have not known them.—Ps. 147:20.

All—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of men.—Ps. 107:8.

Leader—O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!—Ps. 8:9.

Response—The Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings to the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.—Is. 61:1.

Leader—To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn.—Isa. 61:2.

Response—I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness.—Isa. 61:10.

All—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of men.—Ps. 107:8.

Leader—Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.—Ps. 150:5.

Response—Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.—Ps. 148:2.

Leader—Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.—Ps. 148:3.

Response—Praise the Lord from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps.—Ps. 148:7.

Leader—Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling his word.—Ps. 148:8.

Response—Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars.—Ps. 148:9.

Leader—Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty; for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.—1 Chron. 29:11.

Response—And there were great voices in heaven saying, the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.—Rev. 11:15.

All—Blessed be his glorious name for ever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen.—Ps. 72:19.

Friday Morning, May 20

9 o'clock

Meeting called to order by the President, Mrs. Fred S. Bennett

Hymn

Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning!
Joy to the lands that in darkness have lain!
Hushed be the accents of sorrow and mourning;
Zion in triumph begins her mild reign.

Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold!
Hail to the millions from bondage returning!
Gentiles and Jews the blest vision behold.

See from all lands, from the isles of the ocean,
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are reading the sky.

Hymn

There's a widemess in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.
There's a welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour,
There is healing in His blood.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
But we make His love too narrow
By false limits of our own,
And we magnify His strictness
With a zeal He will not own.

There is plenteous redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take Him at His word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

Hymn, Land of Lands - - - Words by Mrs. J. FRANKLIN PIERCE, Wisconsin

O Land of Lands! My heart doth seem aflame
When I but dwell upon thy mighty name,
Girded with truth, thy brow with mercy crowned,
Let all the earth in praise of thee resound.

Hither hath fled to thine inviting shore
Many a soul with grief and torment sore;
O wondrous goal! Great glory be to thee,
Sweet home of peace, of hope and liberty.

Dear motherland, protected by thine arm,
Thy children dread no evil or alarm,
Loyal to thee, our days on earth be spent
In righteous brotherhood and true content.

Fear not, nor fail, man's sorrows to assuage
Till sin departs and tyrants cease to rage;
Thy starry flag where'er it be unfurled,
Joy may it speak, and God, to all the world.

Father eternal, Lord of life and light,
Strengthen our nation ever for the right;
Love be the watchword on our country's crest,
Freedom her guiding star for all oppressed.

The Family Tie

Our Father—which art in heaven.
Jesus Christ—the first born of many brethren.

LEADER—God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him.—Gen. 1:27.

RESPONSE—The Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth.—Gen. 11:8.

LEADER—Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us?—Mal. 2:10.

RESPONSE—One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.—Eph. 4:6.

LEADER—To us there is but one God, the Father, of whom we are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.—I Cor. 8:6.

RESPONSE—And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.—Acts 17:26.

LEADER—There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond or free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.—Gal. 3:28.

RESPONSE—For by one Spirit we are all baptised into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.—I Cor. 12:13.

LEADER—There is one body and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling.—Eph. 4:4.

RESPONSE—One Lord, one faith, one baptism.—Eph. 4:5.

LEADER—For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.—Eph. 2:18.

RESPONSE—One is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.—Matt. 23:8.

LEADER—Am I my brother's keeper?—Gen. 4:9.

RESPONSE—At the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.—Gen. 9:5.

LEADER—When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.—Eze. 3:18.

RESPONSE—Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.—Eze. 3:19.

LEADER—And if thy brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt relieve him; yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.—Lev. 25:35.

RESPONSE—For this thing the Lord thy God will bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thy hand unto.—Deut. 15:10.

LEADER—For the poor shall never cease out of the land; therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thy hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy in thy land.—Deut. 15:11.

RESPONSE—But who so hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him.—1st Jno. 3:17.

LEADER—Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.—Matt. 25:40.

RESPONSE—Ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called.—I Cor. 1:26.

LEADER—But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty.—I Cor. 1:27.

RESPONSE—That repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.—Luke 24:47.

LEADER—That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things on earth, and things under the earth.—Phil. 2:10.

RESPONSE—And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is the Lord, to the glory of God the Father.—Phil. 2.11.

LEADER—Why doest thou set at naught thy brother, for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.—Rom. 14:10.

RESPONSE—As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men.—Gal. 6:10.

LEADER—Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and good works.—Heb. 10:24.

RESPONSE—But this I say, Brethren, the time is short.—I Cor. 7:29.

LEADER—I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh, when no man can work.—Jno. 9:4.

RESPONSE—After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands.—Rev. 7:9.

LEADER—And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb.—Rev. 7:10.

Leader—And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.—Acts ii: 1.

Response—And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south.—Psalms cvii: 3.

L.—I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth.—Isa. xliii: 6.

R.—Even every one that is called by my name; for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea I have made him.—Isa. xliii: 7.

L.—The north and the south Thou hast created them.

L.—Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it?—Isa. xliii: 19.

R.—That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.—Eph. v: 27.

L.—Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.
—Song of Sol. iv: 16.

R.—I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.—Song of Sol. ii : 3.

L.—He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.—Song of Sol. ii : 4.

R.—O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.
—Song of Sol. v : 1.

L.—This is the day the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.—Psalms cxviii : 24.

R.—Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongues with singing; The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.—Psalms cxxvi : 2–3.

L.—And they said one to another.—Luke xxiv : 32.

R.—Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering.—Heb. x : 23.

L.—And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works.—Heb. x : 24.

R.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power.—Col. i : 11.

L.—My beloved spake, and said unto me.—Song of Sol. ii : 10.

R.—Preach the Gospel to every creature.—Mark xvi : 15.

L.—To give light to them that sit in darkness.—Luke i : 79.

R.—Ye that are the Lord's remembrancers keep not silent.
—Isa. lxii : 6.

L.—My spirit remaineth among you; fear ye not.
—Hag. ii : 5.

R.—And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.—Luke xiii : 29.

L.—For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come.—Heb. xiii : 14.

R.—On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; on the west three gates.—Rev. xxi : 13.

All—And there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
—John x : 16.

Presbyterian Church in the United States

Thirty-sixth Annual Meeting
May 19-24, 1915

Brick Presbyterian Church
North Fitzhugh Street, Corner Allen Street
Rochester, New York

GENERAL THEME—The Soul of America.

Righteousness exalteth a nation.—Prov. 14: 34.

He shall not fail nor be discouraged until he have set righteousness in the earth.—Isa. 42: 4.

ANNUAL MEETING HYMN—

"Lord! While for All Mankind We Pray" (Tune, St. Ann).

Lord! while for all mankind we pray,
Of ev'ry clime and coast,
Oh, hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.

Oh, guard our shores from every foe,
With peace our borders bless;
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.

Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth and Thee;
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

Here may religion, pure and mild,
Smile on our Sabbath hours;
And piety and virtue bless
The home of us and ours.

Lord of the nations, thus to Thee
Our Country we commend;
Be Thou her refuge and her trust,
Her everlasting friend.

REGISTRATION—Each delegate is asked to register at the Brick Presbyterian Church as soon as possible, securing the ribbon badge and the Woman's Board button.

CONFERENCES OF DELEGATES TO THE MEETINGS of the Woman's Board of Home Missions will be held on Wednesday, May 19th, at ten and two o'clock, and on Thursday, May 20th, at ten o'clock. Board members and duly accredited delegates only are expected to attend.

MORNING PRAYER SERVICE—Every morning except Sunday at nine-thirty in the church parlors a Prayer Service will be held to which all are invited.

EXHIBIT—There will be in the church parlor an exhibit of literature and of work done by pupils in our mission schools.

AMBASSADORS.

Leader: Now then we are ambassadors for Christ. 2 Cor. 5:20.

Response: I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. John 15:16.

L.—I have even called thee by thy name; I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.—Isa. 45:4.

R.—Ye Are the Salt of the Earth.—Matt. 5:13.

L.—Ye Are the Light of the World.—Matt. 5:14.

R.—Ye Are My Friends.—John 5:14.

L.—Ye Are the Lord's Remembrancers.—Isa. 62:6.

R.—Ye Are My Witnesses.—Isa. 43:10.

L.—Rise, and stand upon thy feet; for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee.—Acts 26:16.

R.—Now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the Power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.—Acts 26:17-18.

L.—I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron. —Isa. 45:2.

R.—And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people. —Isa. 51:16.

L.—So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth; it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.—Isa. 55:11.

R.—I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.—Acts 13:47.

L.—Be thou an example, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.—1 Tim. 4:12.

R.—Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.—2 Tim. 2:15.

L.—Be not now negligent; for the Lord hath chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that ye should minister unto Him.—2 Chron. 29:11

Continued

R.—Ministering as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.—1 Peter 4:10.

L.—Declare ye among the nations, and publish; and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not.—Jer. 50:2.

R.—Publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Lord, save thy people.—Jer. 31:7.

L.—How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!—Isa. 52:7.

R.—The Lord giveth the word; the women that publish the tidings are a great host.—Psa. 68:11.

L.—And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.—Isa. 62:7.

R.—Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.—Isa. 41:10.

L.—Ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace; the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and the trees of the field shall clap their hands.—Isa. 55:12.

R.—I will be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.—Ezk. 11:16.

L.—Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.—2 Tim. 2:3.

R.—My peace I give unto you.—John 14:27.

L.—My presence shall go with you.—Ex. 33:14.

R.—And the King's servants said unto the King, behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the King shall appoint.—2 Sam. 15:15.

L.—Having, therefore, obtained help of God, I continue unto this day witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come.—Acts 26:22.

R.—Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.—1 Col. 1:28.

L.—For which I am an ambassador; that therein I may speak boldly as I ought to speak.—Eph. 6:20.

R.—And let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.—Gal. 6:9.

L.—Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long suffering with joyfulness.—Col. 1:12.

Continued

R.—Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light.—Col. 1:12.

L.—We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers.—1 Thes. 1:2.

R.—Remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of God and our Father.—1 Thes. 1:3.

L.—Now the God of peace. . . .make you perfect in every good thing to do His will working in us that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.—Heb. 13:21.

Theme: The New Commandment.

This is my commandment that ye love one another, even as I have loved you.—John 15: 12.

These are the words of Jesus Christ. Loving one another is then the soul of America, its spirit and life, for America is a Christian country and only in loving one another, even as He loved us, can we fulfill the spirit of the Founder of Christianity—who shall not fail nor be discouraged until He have set this righteousness in our America.

THE WOMEN'S BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS will hold a meeting on Tuesday morning and afternoon, May 25, in the Brick Presbyterian Church.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
IN THE UNITED STATES

Thirty-Seventh Annual Meeting
Thursday, May 18 through Monday 22, 1916

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
ATLANTIC CITY, NEW JERSEY

GENERAL THEME—That the world may believe....and believing, have life in His name.

PRAYER—

O Thou who hearest every heartfelt prayer
With Thy rich grace, Lord, all our hearts prepare;
Teach us to blaze the path Thy feet have trod,
That groping souls may find their way to God.

HYMN—

1. Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With loving zeal;
The poor, and them that mourn,
The faint and overborne,
Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
Whom Christ doth heal.

2. Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With fervent prayer.
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed, at countless cost,
From dark despair.

3. Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our Lord.

4. Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

MORNING PRAYERS will be held every morning at the Seaside House from 8.40 to 9 o'clock.

DEVOTIONAL SERVICES fifteen minutes in length will open each session and will be led by Mrs. William Nelson, of New Jersey. The doors of the church will be closed promptly at the beginning of these devotional services—9:30 each morning and 3:30 each afternoon—and will not open until the close of the devotional service fifteen minutes later.

REGISTRATION—Each delegate immediately upon arrival should register at the First Presbyterian Church securing the appropriate ribbon badge and the Woman's Board button. Synodical delegates' badges are light blue; presbyterial, dark blue; missionaries', yellow; board members', white.

EXHIBIT—In the church parlor will be an exhibit and sale of literature. Delegates and friends are invited to visit it often and to ask any question regarding the work. Orders for literature will be given careful attention.

Attention is called also to the exhibit of the school work and literature of the Woman's Board of Home Missions at the Steel Pier in connection with the exhibit of the other Boards.

A RECEPTION will be held in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock to which all delegates and friends of the Woman's Board are cordially invited.

Central Presbyterian Church

COLUMBUS, OHIO

Friday Morning, May Seventeenth
9.30 o'clock

MRS. F. S. BENNETT, President, presiding.

HYMN—

(The following two verses of an International anthem to the tune of "My Country 'Tis of Thee" and "God Save the King" were written by George Huntington and were first sung at St. Paul's Cathedral, London, in celebration of the entry of the United States into the present war.)

Two Empires by the Sea,
Two Nations great and free
One Anthem raise.
One race of ancient fame,
One tongue, one faith we claim,
One God, whose glorious name
We love and praise.

Now, say the God above
Guard the dear lands we love,
Both East and West.
Let love more fervent glow,
As peaceful ages go,
And strength yet stronger grow,
Blessing the blest.

HYMN.

Lord God of Hosts, whose mighty hand
Dominion holds on sea and land,
In Peace and War Thy will we see
Shaping the Larger Liberty.
Nations may rise and nations fall
Thy Changeless purpose rules them all.

For those who weak and broken lie
In weariness and agony—
Great Healer, to their beds of pain
Come, touch, and make them whole again!
O, hear a people's prayers, and bless
Thy servants in their hour of stress!

For those to whom the call shall come
We pray Thy tender welcome home.
The toil, the bitterness, all past,
We trust them to Thy love at last.
O, hear a people's prayers for all,
Who, nobly striving, nobly fall!

For those who minister and heal
And spend themselves, their skill, their zeal—
Renew their hearts with Christ-like faith,
And guard them from disease and death.
And in Thine own good time, Lord, send Thy peace on earth till Time shall end!

—JOHN OXENHAM.

HYMN

Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Joy to the lands that in darkness have lain!
Hush'd be the accents of sorrow and mourning,
Zion in triumph begins her mild reign.

Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold;
Hail to the millions from bondage returning!
Gentiles and Jews the blest vision behold.

See, from all lands, from the isles of the ocean,
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

HYMN 702

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.

My native country thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love,
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our father's God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright,
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by thy might
Great God, our King!

To tell to all the world that God is Light;
That He who made all nations is not willing,
One soul should perish, lost in shades of night.

Refrain— Publish glad tidings;
Tidings of peace;
Tidings of Jesus,
Redemption and release.

Proclaim to ev'ry people, tongue and nation
That God, in whom they live and move is Love;
Tell how He stooped to save His lost creation,
And died on earth that man might live above.

O Master, let me walk with Thee,
In lowly paths of service free;
Tell me Thy secret, help me bear
The strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move
By some clear, winning work of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay,
And guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me Thy patience; still with Thee
In closer, dearer company;
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
In trust that triumphs over wrong.

In hope that sends a shining ray
Far down the future's broadening way;
In peace that only Thou canst give,
With Thee, O Master, let me live.

HYMN p 481

O Love that wilt not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in Thee;
I give Thee back the life I owe,
That in Thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.

O Light that followest all my way,
I yield my flick'ring torch;
My heart restores its borrowed ray,
That in Thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter, fairer be.

O Cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from Thee;
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be.

HYMN ♪ 416

The Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood red banner streams afar:
Who follows in His train?
Who best can drink his cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in His train.

A noble army, men, and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed:
They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain;
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train.

Mrs Henderson Okla.

ADDRESS—The World's Need of an Interchurch Movement - - ROBERT E. SPEER, D.D.
Secretary of Board of Foreign Missions

HYMN ♪ 11

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad His wonderful Name;
The Name, all victorious, of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.

God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still He is nigh—His presence we have:
The great congregation His triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.

Salvation to God, Who sits on the throne;
Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son:
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore, and give Him His right,
All glory and power and wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

HYMN p 635

Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With loving zeal;
The poor, and them that mourn,
The faint and overborne,
Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
Whom Christ doth heal.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With fervent prayer.
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed, at countless cost,
From dark despair.

Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our Lord.

Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

HYMN

Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home:
Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And Holiness shall whisper
The sweet Amen of peace;
For not with swords loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums,
But deeds of love and mercy,
The heavenly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
We journey in its light:
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might.

BIENNIAL HYMN

Lift up your heads, ye gates of brass,
Ye bars of iron, yield,
And let the King of Glory pass;
The cross is in the field.
That banner, brighter than the star
That leads the train of night,
Shines on their march, and guides from far
His servants to the fight.

A holy war those servants wage;
Mysteriously at strife,
The powers of heaven and hell engage
For more than death and life.
Ye armies of the living God,
His sacramental host,
Where hallowed footsteps never trod
Take your appointed post.

Though few and small and weak your bands,
Strong in your Captain's strength
Go to the conquest of all lands;
All must be His at length.
Those spoils at His victorious feet
You shall rejoice to lay,
And lay yourselves, as trophies meet,
In His great judgment-day.

O fear not, faint not, halt not now;
In Jesus' Name be strong;
To Him shall all the nations bow,
And sing with you this song:
"Uplifted are the gates of brass,
The bars of iron yield;
Behold the King of Glory pass;
The cross hath won the field."

HYMN

From ocean unto ocean
Our land shall own Thee Lord,
And, filled with true devotion,
Obey Thy sovereign word.
Our prairies and our mountains,
Forest and fertile field,
Our rivers, lakes, and fountains,
To Thee shall tribute yield.

O Christ, for Thine own glory,
And for our country's weal,
We humbly plead before Thee,
Thyself in us reveal;
And may we know, Lord Jesus,
The touch of Thy dear hand;
And, healed of our diseases,
The tempter's power withstand.

Where error smites with blindness,
Enslaves and leads astray,
Do Thou in loving-kindness
Proclaim Thy gospel day;
Till all the tribes and races
That dwell in this fair land,
Adorned with Christian graces,
Within Thy courts shall stand.

Our Saviour King, defend us,
And guide where we should go;
Forth with Thy message send us,
Thy love and light to show;
Till, fired with true devotion
Enkindled by Thy word,
From ocean unto ocean
Our land shall own Thee Lord.

ROLL CALL BY SYNODS

HYMN

O Master, let me walk with Thee,
In lowly paths of service free;
Tell me Thy secret, help me bear
The strain of toil, the fret of care.

Help me the slow of heart to move
By some clear, winning word of love;
Teach me the wayward feet to stay,
And guide them in the homeward way.

Teach me Thy patience; still with Thee
In closer, dearer company;
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong
In trust that triumphs over wrong.

In hope that sends a shining ray
Far down the future's broadening way;
In peace that only Thou canst give,
With Thee, O Master, let me live.

HYMN

Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home;
Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal
Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And Holiness shall whisper
The sweet Amen of peace;
For not with swords loud clashing,
Nor roll of stirring drums,
But deeds of love and mercy,
The heavenly kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal
We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning
Where'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
We journey in its light;
The crown awaits the conquest;
Lead on, O God of might.

HYMN

Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With loving zeal;
The poor, and them that mourn,
The faint and overborne,
Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
Whom Christ doth heal.

Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our Lord.

Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With fervent prayer;
The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed, at countless cost,
From dark despair.

Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

Forty-fifth Annual Report
Woman's Board of Home Missions

THE Woman's Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. presents herewith its Forty-fifth Annual Reportto the woman's missionary organization.

The process of reorganization has made the year a difficult one for both the mission field and the constituency because of the uncertainties, but the watchword of "Go Forward" has been lived up to, and the Board records the advances of the year with deep gratitude to God for His continued goodness. He has given the increase.

It has taken longer and been more difficult to get the Board of National Missions an actually functioning Board than was anticipated and so it has been necessary for each of the constituent Boards to carry its separate treasury and the administration of its respective mission field throughout the current year, so that the Woman's Board has rounded out the forty-fifth year of its service. On April first the Board of National Missions assumed complete control and responsibility for the work of the "old" Boards.

It is a far cry from the report that is now presented back to 1879 when the Woman's Executive Committee presented its first report of 25 missionaries sent out and $3,138.89 given for the work. Those first women were full of Christian faith and courage and we today are reaping the fruits of their labor. The work has grown steadily until this year we have 476 missionaries serving in 77 mission stations, and property worth $2,500,000 with receipts of $963,557 from living donors for the current year.

The Board realizes that the success of the work depends upon the women and young people of the church who are organized into 41 synodical, 268 presbyterial and 15,704 local societies with a total membership of 436,129, of which 198,495 are in the 9,802 young people's societies. These societies are practically all organized for Missions—not Home or Foreign, for the women in our missionary societies are interested in the entire missionary task given us by the Church. All of the synodical societies but one are organized for both Home and Foreign Missions and it has voted to unite. The Board records with deep gratitude its appreciation of the loyal cooperation which the women have given all through the years. The work is theirs. The Board is merely the steward.

The Mission Field has gone forward both intensively and extensively. The reports show 25 more missionaries on the field, 700 more pupils in schools, and 15,000 more patients in hospitals and dispensaries.

The financial returns for the year show a decided gain, but the woman's missionary organization did not reach the hoped-for goal of all apportionments met. The treasury shows the following amounts received for work within the budget: From the Missionary Organizations, $929,297; from Churches, $3,810; from Sunday-schools, $14,413; from individuals, $8,307; from Special Gifts Campaign, $7,729.19—making a total of $963,557 from living donors; from the Mission Field, $99,374; from interest on Sage Legacy, $36,831; from interest on permanent funds and other sources, $13,573—making a grand total of $1,113,335 for work within the budget. In addition there was received $81,861 for specials including buildings not appropriated under the budget. It was economy on the mission field plus increased receipts from mission schools and hospitals, however, which made it possible for the Board to close its year with all bills paid.

An outstanding event of the year was the uniting of The Home Mission Monthly and Woman's Work in the new magazine Women and Missions. We loved our Home Mission Monthly. Let us, loyally receive the new magazine—it is ours.

The women's and young women's missionary organizations have had committed to them by the General Assembly, under the Board of National Missions, the care of schools and hospitals for white and black, red and yellow people, from Alaska to the West Indies.

The mission field is therefore just as definitely committed to the missionary organizations under the new regime as it was under the old. It is theirs to love and pray for and support. The Board of National Missions is looking to them, the missionaries are counting upon them, God is waiting for them.

Let us greet the new relationship with faith and hope believing that "so long His power hath blessed us sure it still will lead us on."

Reports from Headquarters

The promotion work of the Board has been done through six departments: Missionary Education, Young People's Work, Christian Social Service, Student Work, Literature and the Home Mission Monthly.

Missionary Education

The following report has been prepared by Mrs. M. J. Gildersleeve, Secretary for Missionary Education:

THE Department of Missionary Education for the Woman's Board of Home Missions was definitely set up in January, 1912, with the present secretary in charge. A few classes in mission study had been held and books had been recommended for study since 1908. Field secretaries had conducted classes, interest had been stimulated from headquarters so that when the department began to function the constituency was in a measure ready to cooperate. With the election of synodical and presbyterial secretaries for missionary education the wheels began to move, gaining momentum each year. The record of classes shows steady increase each year. The totals for the years are as follows:

1912	188	classes
1913	589	classes
1914	1,060	classes
1915	1,611	classes
1916	1,448	classes
1917	1,555	classes
1918	1,247	classes
1919	1,151	classes
1920	2,295	classes
1921	1,741	classes
1922	3,708	classes
1923	3,331	classes
1924	3,144	classes

The enrollment cards distributed through synodical and presbyterial secretaries have been received with more definite information each year. Secretaries for missionary education are improving in their work each year, showing deeper interest and a larger knowledge of methods. Traveling libraries with study books have been the means of getting more books studied and increasing the number of classes. Helps for study books have proved of value to leaders of classes.

Since the early years the method of study has changed to a marked degree. Program meetings and reading circles were used very largely in churches in which it was difficult to secure leaders of classes. Our records, however, have shown in later years a large increase in the mission study class proper. This increase indicates a desire for definite knowledge under a well-informed leader.

Plans have been made for classes in the different church organizations looking toward a whole church at study. In the Church School of Missions, increasing in number each year, children have their own classes, under competent leadership studying the books specially prepared for them. Summer conferences were provided with expert leadership and fine reports of their work have been received.

Report of Classes for 1923-1924 shows:

Mission Study Classes	1,488
Relay	310
Program Meetings	879
Reading Circles	293
Lecture	174
Total	3,144

Of this number Westminster Guild reports 636.

Under church auspices there were 377 classes. In Sunday-schools there were 193 classes. Making a grand total of 3,714 classes studying Home Missions.

Eighteen synodical societies made a gain in enrollment of classes this year. They are Alabama, Atlantic, California, Colorado, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming. Ninty-three presbyterial societies made a gain in enrollment of classes this year. The three presbyterial societies showing the largest number of classes are: Los Angeles, 138; Pittsburgh, 107; Detroit, 89.

This annual report brings to a close the Department of Missionary Education of the Woman's Board of Home Missions which department has been transferred to the Department of Missionary Education of the Board of Christian Education. Mrs. E. H. Silverthorn, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City, is now responsible for promotion of missionary education in women's organizations. Mrs. Silverthorn comes to her work from the Northwest District of the Board of Foreign Missions fully equipped for this work. The Board of National Missions is cooperating in providing leaders for study groups and conferences and in supplying leaders' helps and other supplementary material. The Department of Missionary Education has a large future before it and all those secretaries who have given loyal service in these past years will enter into the new year with rich enthusiasm.

Young People's Work

The following report has been prepared by Miss M. Josephine Petrie, Secretary for Young People's Work:

The Organization

It has been an uneventful year in the Department for Young People, although the reorganization of the Boards, especially that of the Board of National Missions, has been under way and consequent changes in methods of administration of divisions and departments have been in operation. This department has endeavored to adapt itself to the new conditions without disturbing the relationship between the 9,802 organizations of young people and the work known by them as Home Missions.

Since 1915 the responsibility for enlisting the interest and gifts of organizations of young people and children for home mission service has been an integral part of the work of the Woman's Board. The channel through which the local groups have been reached is the company of secretaries for children, young women, young people and the Westminster Guild. There are:

39 Synodical Secretaries for Young People.
15 Synodical Secretaries for Children's Work.
24 Synodical Secretaries for Westminster Guild.
285 Presbyterial Secretaries for Young People.
112 Presbyterial Secretaries for Children's Work.
131 Presbyterial Secretaries for Westminster Guild.

There were 263 changes in the list during the year and letters of instruction, packets of sample publications for young people, etc., were sent to each new secretary reported. These are volunteer workers elected by the women's synodical and presbyterial societies. They have emphasized most loyally and efficiently the service of this Board as carried on in mission schools, hospitals, community work, etc. To aid them in this service definite salaries of missionary teachers, doctors and nurses have been assigned by the young people's secretaries of the Board for the several groups of young people, and shares offered in the maintenance of the various enterprises of the Board.

The annual reports for synodical and presbyterial secretaries give the following statistics:

Young People Societies	3,973
Children Groups	3,285
Young Women Societies	339
Westminster Guild Chapters and Circles	2,205
Membership	198,495

Publicity

Wireless Messages is in its ninth volume and has twice a year carried the letters from missionaries supported by young people to the Christian Endeavor and similar organizations and is free to them. The four illustrated letters for the younger groups—the Intermediates, Juniors, Light Bearers and Little Light Bearers—have also been sent out twice during the year as usual. This means that 14,000 copies of Wireless and over 24,000 of the children's letters have been used this year by leaders for meetings, conferences and institutes for young people and on the literature tables at synodical and presbyterial gatherings. Leaflets and letters have also been sent to the young women's societies interested in the training class for nurses at the Presbyterian Hospital in Port Rico. The children's paper, Missionary Mail, and the Westminster Guild Bulletin, are supplied generously as samples, but both are subscription publications. In addition to these publications featuring the special information from the stations and missionaries assigned to all groups which come under the direction of the department, the promotion work in printed form has included new leaflets of methods; reprints of popular organization folders, programs, illustrated leaflets with sketches for children and their leaders, birthday card for children's organizations, leaflet giving suggestions for young people's hour at presbyterial meetings, the Dime Saver and a Manual for children's organizations.

Other Promotion Efforts

The goals presented by the U. S. C. E. for the three divisions of C. E. societies with the text, "Be ye doers of the Word," have been kept in mind during the year, and the threefold service—for the church, the society, the world—has been stressed. In line with this program from the C. E. headquarters the Young People's Department has cooperated with the Department of Home and Church of the Board of Christian Education in the preparation and promotion of a Young People's Service Program which is a 100% Standard for young people's organizations. This covers all forms of responsibility and opportunities for the individual members in relation to their local societies, to the church, to the Sabbath-school, to other societies of the church, to denominational agencies and to people and missionaries in our own and other lands. The correlated Junior Goals have also been promoted by the department.

Study classes and classes for methods in missionary work have been taught at summer conferences and winter institutes, most of this work having fallen to the assistant secretary.

Westminster Guild

Miss Gordon has carried the promotion work of the Westminster Guild Chapters and Circles, and makes the following report of the work of these groups:

Although the year 1923-24 is one which has seen the actual carrying out of plans for reorganization and the change from the Woman's Board of Home Missions to the Board of National Missions, the members of Westminster Guild have not been disturbed by these events, nor wavered in their loyalty to the work. There is always difficulty in securing correct figures, but those given here have been compiled from the reports of 179 presbyterial secretaries who sent their information into the office and can be depended upon for a fairly accurate view of the work.

Fresh enthusiasm has been brought by the 351 new chapters and circles—10 more new ones than were reported last year. These groups and the new members who have come into already existing ones make a considerably increased membership. Figures for last year totalled 32,294, while this year 37,723 are reported. During the past year there were 636 classes reported from Westminster Guild. The substantial increase over last year's classes shows that this part of the work is moving forward. Westminster Guild gifts to the Woman's Board of Home Missions totalled $46,542.63. Of this $46,229.15 was for the support of the regular work assigned to the organization. Next year we are not advancing the total amount of the budget and hope that it will then be possible to report the full $50,000 for our own work.

For the past few years the Woman's Board of Home Missions has been paying $750 raised under its own budget to the Board of Missions for Freedmen as the salary of a teacher at Brainerd Institute. Beginning with April 1, 1924 five thousand dollars of the amount raised by Westminster Guild is to be part of the budget of the Division of Missions for Colored People while the remainder will be used as before in the support of work under the Division of Schools and Hospitals. This arrangement will make it possible for members of Westminster Guild to feel that they have a vital share in the work for colored people through their own budget.

The privilege of providing Christmas gifts for our home mission stations was eagerly accepted again this year and the work carried on with greater efficiency. Most of the needs of the schools and communities as reported to headquarters were met in time for the holidays.

Gifts for Home Missions

The money records of the department since the year 1915 total $825,054.62 definitely designated for the school, hospital and community enterprises of the Woman's Board of Home Missions. The largest increases were in 1919-20, $34,010 and 1920-21, $13,092.

An illustration of the dependability of this constituency is found in the following fact: The apportionment of the various groups of young people for the year 1922-23 was $133,510.50, and the amount actually given by these same groups was $132,758; this shows that the goal set was not an exaggerated estimate of their possibilities. Without doubt the societies would have reached the amounts asked if the payments of pledges had been checked up and reminders sent them. This requires frequent reports from presbyterial treasurers and a generous allowance of time, tact and postage.

The financial statement from the treasurer is as follows:

1922-23		1923-24
$40,520.72	Christian Endeavor Societies.....	$42,159.04
23,203.22	Young Women	23,857.71
12,315.27	Light Bearers and Little Light Bearers	12,571.05
42,818.77	Westminster Guild (including Freedmen's Board salary)	46,542.63
13,900.02	Sunday schools (designated for Woman's Board stations)	14,413.16

Warnings received through the correspondence of the last six months prepared us for a decrease in gifts from the young people, the reasons given by them being the many vacant pastorates; the special appeals; the misunderstandings in regard to reorganization plans and the criticisms and controversies in the churches. All of these have been given as valid excuses for failure to make good the money gifts of former years and young people have stated that their reaction to these circumstances had been expressed by turning gifts into outside channels. In view of these pronouncements on the part of some of the correspondents, the report of the treasurer is most gratifying. Although the financial contributions have permitted the Woman's Board to commission more workers for the mission fields, and to open or enlarge stations during the years, this is but one phase of the service of the department. A review of the list of the synodical presidents shows that nine or ten of them became familiar with the organization and "machinery" in the woman's work through their leadership as secretaries of the young people in synodical and presbyterial societies.

Mission Study

Although there was a prejudice manifested against "The Child and America's Future" as a study book for young people when it was first announced, when the contents of the book were reviewed and classes were taught at summer conferences and institutes, the antipathy vanished. On the other hand, "Better Americans" as a title for Juniors proved an attractive subject for leaders even without examination of the book. The number of study classes reported is 1,297, an increase of 241 over last year. (This includes the 636 for the Westminster Guild.) These figures do not represent the number who have used the text-books for they do not include the schools of missions in which young people have made up the larger proportion of the membership in many churches, nor the meetings when the books were reviewed.

"Things To Do"

A leaflet under this title was prepared with the Foreign Board and has helped to answer many inquiries for hand work and Christmas supplies. The children's organizations were never more zealous in their eagerness for this form of expression for their interest in the children on the mission fields and it has been rather difficult to provide work for small fingers and small purses. They have supplied such quantities of scrap-books and picture cards that a halt was called on that product. So far as possible, the requests for leaders have been granted, and as a result many useful articles have been sent to the schools, and the hospital in Porto Rico. Many boxes of dolls, games and toys were provided by these organizations for Christmas.

Comprehensive Programs

After several conferences of officers of the three Boards concerned—the two Boards of Missions and the Board of Christian Education—three committees were appointed to work out comprehensive programs for the three age groups—adult, intermediate and children. The members of these committees were selected by the Boards and included the experienced leaders in local churches. Special recognition should be made of the services of Miss Emma Jessie Ogg, Miss Elinor Purves and Miss Rose Russell on these committees. The work has demanded many hours of investigation and days of conference. The Boards also recommended committees for working out a uniform financial approach to young people's organizations and to Sunday-schools, and for making plans for a presbyterial union or council of young people. These committees are continuing their investigations and reports will be made later in the year.

The outlook for the coming year is hopeful, for as a vital part of the Board of National Missions the young people's organizations and the loyal company of six hundred secretaries may expect the cooperation of all the Board secretaries, directors and "field men," as well as the official force in synodical and presbyterial societies.

Christian Social Service

The following report has been prepared by Miss Christine T. Wilson, Secretary for Christian Social Service:

SYNODICAL, presbyterial and local missionary societies in 15 states are conducting Christian Social Service work, independently or jointly with the presbytery or synod. Visitations to many of the centers, a closer contact with directing committees, and a more intimate knowledge of the problems confronting the local worker, have enabled the department to cooperate in the social-religious programs of these organizations through surveys, through conferences with staff and administrative councils, and through the exchange of a technique of work successfully achieved in other communities.

Realizing the increasing need for leadership of high calibre for such work throughout the country, the department has directed its attention to securing and developing a skilled personnel, capable of interpreting the "Christian way of life" to our immigrant peoples. First, an effort has been made to keep in touch with recent graduates of Presbyterian Training and Religious Education Schools. Secondly, the Fellowship and Scholarship program is training young women for Christian service in congested and isolated foreign districts. Seven graduate students enrolled at Teachers College, Columbia University, are having field work experience in New York City churches. A young Mexican woman holds a scholarship at the Westminster School, Berkeley, in preparation for church work among her own people. In 1923 the granting of summer scholarships permitted six students from the University of Wisconsin to share in the Daily Vacation Bible School and camp programs of the Mesaba and Gogebic Iron Ranges. Faculty, students and the Range Parishes received the plan with such enthusiasm that arrangements are now being completed for an extensive Presbyterian Summer Student Program, which will provide twelve scholarships for juniors from Alma, Carroll and Macalester Colleges, and the University of Wisconsin, to assist in the Parish Schools on the Iron, Mesaba and Gogebic Ranges for five weeks of the 1924 vacation.

Presbyterian support was again given the Council of Women for Home Missions for the Migrant Farm and Cannery Work. The efficient direction of Miss Laura H. Parker, the enthusiasm and ability of her staff, the confidence and interest of the canners, have expanded the service of this venture to six stations, one for the children of negro migrants.

The department also made an appropriation to the Council for organizing a scheme to connect newly arrived Protestant immigrants with local churches.

The present immigration law, rigid and unwieldy, the crowded conditions at Ellis Island, and government restrictions upon social service work, have increased the demands at the Island upon our representative for Spanish-speaking peoples, Mrs. Mary F. Rivera. It is almost impossible to enumerate or evaluate her services to aliens going through our port of entry. Unravelling the immigrants' intricate admission difficulties for rushed governmental officials, interpreting at "special inquiry" hearings, communicating with friends here and abroad, straightening out tangles with steamship companies, reassuring worried aliens about the status of their cases, or sick relatives detained in the hospital, arranging a wedding ceremony for the unaccompanied bride, giving a sympathetic hearing and painstaking attention to the alien's problems and above all, speaking to him in his own tongue, have made many a foreigner's first or last impression of America, one of Christian friendliness.

Student Work

The following report has been prepared by Miss Florence Tyler, Executive Secretary for Student Work, joint officer of the Woman's Boards of Home and Foreign Missions:

THE twelfth annual report of Student Department offers the greatest encouragement in spite of the fact that the department has been short one Secretary for a part of the year, Miss Mary Eliza Clark having been married in the fall. With the help of Miss Ann T. Reid, of the Candidate Department of the Board of Foreign Missions, and Miss Harriet Thompson, University of Minnesota 1921, who came to the department the middle of February, the secretaries have visited one hundred six institutions. Ten of these visits have been made in connection with our church team. Team visits have been projected wherever the leaders on any campus felt that such a visit would be helpful. The plans for each visit have been developed locally along the lines of the particular needs of the campus.

Student work was represented at six Y. W. C. A. Student Conferences during the summer of 1923, and at two of these student secretaries taught Bible Study Classes. Relationships have never been closer and the secretaries felt themselves a very real part of the Conferences; in some cases they served on the Executive Committee of the Conference.

The work of the Federated Student Committee has been most helpful in coordinating, in so far as was practicable, the work of the various denominational Student Departments and the Student Department of the Young Women's Christian Association.

In going over the files, it is interesting to note that 71 girls are now taking graduate work in definite preparation for work on the Foreign Mission field and 4 girls for work on the Home Mission field. It is also interesting to note that 108 undergraduates have expressed a definite desire to serve in the Home Mission Field, and 103 undergraduates have registered a desire to serve in work overseas; 36 girls are looking forward to service in local churches as a vocation. Sixteen Presbyterian girls gave up the summer vacation in order to serve in Home Mission stations. The number who expressed a readiness to do this service was so great that it was exceedingly difficult to choose the workers.

Four hundred twenty-eight Presbyterian girls, who are known to the Department and are definitely interested in making their church a real element in the solution of the problems of today, are being graduated in June from the colleges all over the country. It rests with the women of our churches to open up every real avenue of service for this great body of interest.

The Home Mission Monthly

The following report has been prepared by Miss Theodora Finks, Editor of the Home Mission Monthly:

WITH the March issue, the Home Mission Monthly ceased publication, its consolidation with Woman's Work being consummated April, 1924, in a new periodical bearing the name Women and Missions. In spite of the fact that announcement of approaching consolidation was made in the spring of 1923, the Home Mission Monthly encouraged secretaries for literature to keep their lists of subscriptions up to standard and so loyal was their response to the circulars and letters sent out, that when the time came for transferring the entire list to the new magazine there were about thirty-four thousand names. During the year, the Home Mission Monthly received even more expressions of appreciation than ever before. Articles were copied by permission in other magazines and papers, credit being given the Home Mission Monthly; reprints of special articles in leaflet form were also made by outside organizations as well as by the Woman's Board. There has been no retrogression during the last months, each issue being declared to be one of the best ever put out. It has been good to enter into consolidation while in the harness and pulling a full share of the load.

During the last few months, letters received from subscribers of more than thirty years' standing were numerous, and their cordial allusion to the Home Mission Monthly as a dear friend, as an inspiration throughout a long missionary career, as a standard for missionary literature, and as possessing numberless other qualities which made it of value, were a very pleasant part of the rounding out of thiry-seven years of publication. This brief report covers the current year only but the March number of the Home Mission Monthly includes historical material concerning both the magazine and the Board and supplies various facts summarizing the years of publication. Many letters were received as soon as the March issue reached subscribers, telling of their intention to preserve that number. The fine cooperation of secretaries for literature is always gratifying, the encouragement of appreciative readers is always stimulating, the need of the mission field is always compelling. The Home Mission Monthly has enjoyed such fine support from the women of the Church that for the new magazine nothing better can be wished than a continuance of that support, that there may be growth commensurate with the development of the work of the Church.

Literature Department

THE many changes resulting from the union of Boards have not decreased demands for our publications, nor the volume of work required to distribute them. To meet the needs of women's organizations 950,052 copies of leaflets were printed and bound into 3,690,500 pages. This is an increase of 227,127 copies, but a decrease of 1,405,325 pages, and is proof that leaflets of few pages are being used in increased numbers. The Leaflet Subscription Plan has grown in favor. During the year 147 new subscriptions have been added to our list, bringing the total number of subscribers up to 1,561. The full edition of 52,000 copies of the "Year Book of Prayer" for 1923 was practically exhausted. After seven years of useful existence the Home Field Extra has discarded its name and will hereafter be known as National Excerpts. Its subscription list is increasing. The year's receipts from literature sales total $17,759.20.

In addition to the publications issued by the Woman's Board there have been distributed through our department to woman's societies large quantities of literature on the subject of stewardship, published by the New Era Department of Stewardship, also literature issued jointly for home and foreign mission societies to give them methods for the development and progress of their work.

The Mission Field

The following report has been prepared by Miss Edna R. Voss, Superintendent of Field Work:

AGAIN a review of the year shows intensive, rather than extensive development on the field. The determination of the Woman's Board several years ago to put its "going" work on a more efficient basis to meet the growing opportunities resulting from rapidly changing conditions in the communities in which it worked, led to a program of enlarging and improving physical equipment and increasing the field personnel. More adequate plants and more missionaries at work have made it possible during the past year for each station to reach more people in more ways and with greater influence than ever before.

New Buildings

With funds from the Sage legacy a teachers' home has been erected at Tucson Indian Training School, and a Sage Memorial dormitory for about fifty boys has made it possible to increase materially the enrollment at Wasatch Academy. Friends of Dwight Indian Training School, Oklahoma, will be glad to know that three Sage buildings are nearing completion, two dormitories to accommodate fifty students each, one for boys and one for girls, and a superintendent's home, all substantial stone fireproof structures. The Legacy Reserve Fund, a fund made up of undesignated legacies, has made possible further rehabilitation of Menual School, Albuquerque, this past year through the erection of Bennett Hall, named in honor of Mrs. F. S. Bennett, designed to accommodate dining hall, living room, kitchens and bakery on the first floor and dormitory for fifty boys on the second. Regular building funds have enabled Tucson Indian Training School, Tucson, to remodel an old building into a fine large dining hall and kitchen for two hundred students, Ganado on the Navajo reservation, Arizona, to build a doctor's home, remodel a workshop into a model community house, build a "Big Hogan," a guest home for families and friends of the Indian pupils, add porches, paint, stucco old buildings, and complete a reservoir of one hundred thousand gallon capacity. The day school at Holman is rejoicing in an additional room; McBeth Mission, Idaho, has a new cottage for its Indian students for the ministry; Dry Creek, West Virginia, has a new workers' cottage, and Smith, Kentucky, a new model barn. Special gifts from individuals and societies are giving to Trementina, New Mexco, a community house toward which the people themselves are contributing materials and labor; to Rocky Fork, Tennessee, a much needed dispensary; to Browneys Creek, a branch station of Smith, Kentucky, a worker's cottage; to Mossop School, Harriman, Tennessee, a tract of valuable land for a school garden; to the Normal School at Asheville, two new practice cottages and an industrial building.

New Work

The Board is to be congratulated upon the acquisition the first of September of the day and boarding school of over five hundred students at Cardenas, Cuba. For several years that work has been financed jointly by the Woman's Board and the Executive Committee of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and it is with deep appreciation of the confidence which the Presbyterian Church, U. S. has had in the Woman's Board that that Board accepted the responsibility of carrying on a work initiated and fostered with such great vision. Work by the board has been discontinued at two stations during the year. It was found that Cortland, Kentucky, could be cared for as a branch station of Buckhorn, and the two workers there released to open up work at Lower Buffalo, a needy and most promising section about fifteen miles farther north. Because of the few families at Juniper, Tennessee, work there for several years past has been restricted to cooperation with the public school. When request for help in a school and community program came from Cosby, seven miles distant, it was decided to transfer the workers at Juniper from that station to the more strategic, more thickly settled district. With the gift of a legacy and with very material help from the Cosby community in land, money, labor, and practically all building material a well-equipped plant of school, playground and workers' cottage is nearing completion.

All Porto Rico is rejoicing over the recent purchase by the Woman's Board of a half block of land adjoining the present hospital property, for the island looks upon this action by the Board as a big first step toward enlarging the service of the hospital long since crowded to capacity. The property secured gives the hospital an entire city block on the ocean front in one of the best residential sections of San Juan, a site adequate not only for the proposed nurses' home, but for the possible future enlargement of the hospital itself.

Health

With the exception of the illness of several workers, the general health on the field has been excellent. Lack of serious epidemics in schools and communities and the decided decrease in the number of minor ailments are largely due, undoubtedly, to the introduction at all stations of special health campaigns and general education on matters of personal and community health and sanitation.

Leaves of Absence

Leaves of absence for rest after a long period of service or because of illness have been granted Miss Esther Buxton, Mr. Elias A. Joslyn, Miss Melissa Montgomery, Miss Eliza N. Robinson, Miss Lucy M. Shafer, Miss Emily B. Sidebotham, and Miss Catherine Culnan. Of those missionaries on leave of absence for study, Mr. H. C. Donaldson, of Menaul; Miss Ione H. Dunn and Mr. Delfido Cordova, of Asheville Normal, have been attending Columbia University. Miss Nola Pease, of Wooton, Kentucky, is taking public health courses at Louisville. Dr. Alice Burke, of the Presbyterian Hospital, San Juan, Porto Rico, has been taking special work at the Buffalo General Hospital in preparation for the establishment of increased laboratory service at "El Presbiteriano," as the hospital at San Juan is known.

Scholarships

College scholarships to graduates of the Board's schools who have shown unusual qualities of Christian leadership have been granted to six this past year. Of these, four are freshmen, one a sophomore, and one a senior. In addition to these college scholarships, special grants have been made to two graduates, one for special Bible training, the other for a two-year course in home economics.

Twenty-five additional workers have been placed on the field during 1923-1924 and this increase in personnel has had decided bearing not only on the year's statistics, but on the character of the work accomplished. There have been more Sunday-schools and more children attending Sunday-school, a larger number uniting with the church, more special classes and more children and adults in those classes; nearly 700 more pupils have been enrolled in school, and the record figure of 63,317 for the total number of patients means that 14,775 more received treatment during the year just ended than during the year before. Work along all lines has been more efficient; the number of activities has been increased; and closer cooperation with public and other agencies has been made possible. Boarding schools have sent their pupils into neighboring needy fields to work under the direction of trained leaders; day schools have added to their programs responsibility for social, recreational and health work in their communities; and community centers have organized new classes and opened up additional branch stations. The aim of the Woman's Board to develop Christian leaders among our groups of exceptional peoples through training schools and practical demonstration in typical communities has led to a three-fold program of health, education and evangelism in every station, whether school, hospital, or community center. The reports from the field which follow will show how this program is being developed and with what results.

ALASKAN FIELD

There are in Alaska two stations for which the Woman's Board has been responsible. Sheldon Jackson School, at Sitka, of one hundred fifty boys and girls, carrying grades through high school, and Haines House, Haines, a home for between thirty and forty Indian children under twelve years of age.

Sheldon Jackson School reports more than capacity enrollment with a student body of better mentality and greater promise of leadership than ever before. Its aims are summed up in the school slogan, "Competent Christian Citizens," to the attainment of which all activities are directed. These extend beyond the bounds of the classroom and embrace extensive community work in the adjacent native Indian village carried on by the older students under the supervision of their teachers. Sheldon Jackson is becoming the training center for Christian leadership for the whole of Alaska. The school has this year enrolled two Eskimo pupils from Point Barrow, a boy and a girl, both definitely fitting themselves to return to work among their own people, and one from the Yukon River in interior Alaska. Now comes an appeal from the missionary on St. Lawrence Island that for next year places be reserved and funds be secured for the transportation and training of two promising young people who are eager to equip themselves to bring the Gospel message to the natives of their far western island and Eastern Siberia, just across the straits.

Haines House. The home began the year with an enrollment of twenty-three and closed with thirty-one. An addition to the present building is urgently needed. Miss Jackson writes: "Our determination is to teach every child in the house to know Jesus as the friend of children. We do not want any child to leave the home without having accepted Christ as his Saviour. We want every child to have a child's right of good wholesome food, of a comfortable bed, of the blessing of a clean body, of regular attendance at school, and of the consciousness that 'Mother' is personally interested in their progress, physically, mentally and spiritually." Dr. S. Hall Young thinks Miss Jackson has succeeded. He says: "These kiddies act like normal, healthy, American children. They run to you, catch hold of your hand, hug you, show delight in being hugged and chatter to you just as my grandchildren do."

ORIENTAL FIELD

The responsibility of the Woman's Board for Oriental work on the Pacific Coast has been that of Chinese rescue work of San Francisco with its home for rescued girls, an elementary day school in connection with the Chinese Church of San Francisco, and a home in Oakland for Chinese babies and children of school age. From the report of the home for rescued girls is the following: "A year of intense activity in rescue and reclamation work has resulted in the addition to the membership of the Home of several girls from fifteen to nineteen years of age who at the time of commitment to the Home knew nothing of Christ or even of Christian standards, girls bound by age-old superstition and because of the tragedy of past deceptions, harassed with fears and lack of confidence in the purpose and motives of those who desire only to help and to heal. The most effective step yet taken to develop initiative and leadership has been taken during this past year with the appointment of a regularly commissioned resident teacher of Industrial Arts. The evolving with their own hands, so unaccustomed to work, of practical useful articles is doing much to open the eyes and the hearts of these girls to the things of real value in life."

Through the purchase of an additional building the past summer, the Oakland home was able to care for a family of seventy. The present buildings are crowded and unsanitary, and every effort is being made to secure within the year a new home on property donated for the purpose on the outskirts of the city.

INDIAN FIELD

Work for the American Indian in charge of the Woman's Board covered boarding schools at North Fork, California; Lapwai, Idaho; Ganado and Tucson, Arizona; Wolf Point, Montana, and Dwight, Oklahoma. Day schools have been conducted at San Miguel, Topowa and Stotonic, Arizona; and community programs have been in operation at Neah Bay, Washington; North Fork, California; Ganado and San Miguel, Arizona, and at Elm Spring and Dwight, Oklahoma.

Ganado Mission. The Mission has added at Ganado another activity to its four-fold program of school, hospital, adult Bible training and native preaching—community work through a "Center" for women and girls and a "Big Hogan" for visiting families. The "bunk house" is rapidly being transformed into a community center for Miss Miller and her Indian assistant, Miss Gorman. The workers go out in their car to visit the camp families and are meeting with a very warm reception. Miss Gorman, like her father, is a very earnest preacher of the Gospel. On regularly appointed days they receive the Indian women and children at the community center, where these find facilities for bathing, disinfecting, laundering, sewing and baking and, of course, hear the Gospel message. Parents visiting their children camp around the open fire in the big Indian room, and returned students are encouraged to use the facilities of the "Center," finding there papers and magazines such as they knew when they were in school. If they wish to remain over night, there is a clean bed for them." . . . "The little church at Ganado is most active. It has raised so far this fiscal year, more than $900, supporting its own native evangelist and having a balance of $200 on hand."

One of the teachers reports for the Adult Training School at Ganado for those who do not speak English: "The Adult Primary, as the Government schools would call it, consists of grown and nearly grown students who know little or no English. This year we have ten young men and big boys in this department. Our native evangelist entered this department when he was twenty-one and is now out preaching the Gospel in the camps and doing fine work. We look forward to the time when these young men will be giving the Gospel to their people. One of them, Luke Johnson, crushed his fingers a few weeks ago and had to stay a few days in the hospital. The doctor said he spent his time preaching to the other patients." Mr. Mitchell, the Superintendent, pleads for the introduction of industrial work at Ganado and for dormitories to relieve the present congestion "with eighty girls ranging in age from five to twenty-five in a dormitory for fifty and the boys in a like situation."

At Indian Wells, a branch of Ganado Mission, the outstanding event was the organization in December of a church with eighteen Indians as charter members.

The two small hospitals at Ganado and Indian Wells have been without physicians for the greater part of the year, but handicapped as they have been, report 294 hospital patients, 683 treated in homes, 139 operations and 8,453 dispensary patients.

Tucson Indian Training School, Arizona. An improved physical plant at Tucson and additional workers have resulted in a higher standard of work among the Papago and Pima boys and girls who make up the boarding student body of one hundred sixty-one of this school. Mr. Girton writes: "We are dealing with a primitive people only one generation removed from paganism. In endeavoring to meet the peculiar needs of our students we have made diligent study of the excellent course of study now in use in all Government Indian Schools and of the curriculum of the city schools of Tucson. We find very few texts of any kind with an Indian background and with familiar scenes of the southwest, and this lack makes our classroom work difficult. In the industrial departments we are especially emphasizing the lessons that should help in solving the distressing economic conditions of this desert people. Gratifying progress is being made along some lines not only with the pupils, but also with their parents. It is a big open field full of hard work and promise." . . . "We have just passed through a very impressive period that culminated in forty of our young folks uniting with the church. Their understanding of what they were doing seemed quite clear to all. Now every pupil, with the exception of a few of the younger ones, are professing Christians."

San Miguel. At the community center at San Miguel eighty-five miles from Tucson, the nearest railroad stop, the addition of a housekeeper has enabled the two workers to add many new classes to their already long list of Bible classes, Sunday-schools, and church services, at San Miguel, Topowa, and neighboring Indian villages on the Papago Reservation. Of her day school work in San Miguel, Miss Wolfe writes: "The children are much smaller than in previous years, but are much more responsive—talk louder, and are freer in talking English; they are cleaner and neater in appearance—the girls taking pride in hair ribbons and clean dresses. Now every hand is raised for faces washed before coming to school."

North Fork, California. The acting principal of this little boarding school writes: "The general character of the pupils has improved and we could not wish for more thoughtful and winsome girls. Leadership is not pronounced in most of our Indian girls, but in a few it is quite distinct and forceful. The spiritual side, while of slower growth, is surely on the upward trend as shown in greater thoughtfulness, more reverence, and better habits of life."

McBeth Mission, Lapwai, Idaho. "We have in the training school for native workers five registered students studying for the ministry, a Spokane, a Makah and three Nez Perce Indians. Regular daily study naturally brings mental growth. They read the daily papers and form their own opinions—opinions which are not always to the credit of the white man's ways of thinking and teaching. They are spiritual in their own lives and able to lead others in spiritual things. These Indians are 'natural born' leaders, perfectly at ease and able to conduct any church service."

Neah Bay, Washington. Neah Bay has added a club of girls between twelve and eighteen years of age to its other community activities. "Every girl on the reservation comes in on Saturday evening, one week to study and talk, the next to visit and aid in any way those in the village who need help." It has also, at the request of the Indians themselves in their newly organized church, added a Sunday-school teachers' training class.

Wolf Point, Montana. In spite of the fact that a successor for Mrs. King has not been appointed, the work at the boarding school of fifty Indians, Assiniboines and Yanktons, has gone steadily forward. "The spirit of cooperation has been a strong feature of our family life here. All have the good of the Indian at heart and are most desirous of developing the very best there is in the children, preparing the way to win their young hearts for Jesus. The children are becoming more dependable, take more pride in the care of their rooms and personal appearance, practice self-denial, and are developing thoughtfulness for others."

Dwight, Marble City, Oklahoma. While the three new Sage buildings are in process of erection at Dwight Indian Training School for the re-establishment of this century-old work for the Indians of the five civilized tribes, a small boarding department and day school are maintained. While high standards of scholarship are being set and effort made to organize a curriculum which shall give to each student the best possible practical training to fit him for his present and future environment and work, spiritual goals are not lost sight of: "We are making Christian character-building our aim," reports the superintendent. "Recently, during the girls' evening devotional hour, the supervisor was called from the room. When she returned the girls were kneeling together in prayer. On another occasion the teacher was ill. One of the older girls took charge of the morning exercise and Bible study period. She led in the Lord's Prayer, called the roll, had a number of the children repeat the Twenty-third Psalm, told them a Bible story and then had them sing. Fifteen months ago that girl could not write her name, but had to sign a receipt by making her mark."

SPANISH-SPEAKING FIELD

Spanish-speaking work under the Woman's Board has, with the exception of the Forsythe Memorial boarding school in Los Angeles, centered in New Mexico around the two large boarding schools, Menaul at Albuquerque, for two hundred boys and Allison-James, at Santa Fe, for one hundred girls, both offering elementary grades above the fourth and a full high school course. In addition to these two central schools there are eight stations, carrying community activities as well as day school work, with a varying enrollment of from fifty to one hundred. At two of these centers and at the Brooklyn Cottage Hospital, Embudo, graduate nurses are working among the people.

Forsythe Memorial School, Los Angeles. Serious illness caused the temporary withdrawal from the school of Miss Buxton, the principal, but the work has gone forward under the able direction of Miss Norman who reports slow but steady growth in the fifty-five girls of Spanish-speaking and Mexican parentage. Here extensive repair work and remodelling has given the school a larger assembly room, a larger and better equipped domestic science room, and a much needed music room for practice. "A few girls are showing definite powers of leadership. Some of this has been discovered or developed through the system of student supervisors who are in charge of certain work, such as dish washing, dining room, first and second floors."

Menaul School, Albuquerque. Menaul School was fortunate in securing Mr. J. C. Walker as acting principal during the absence for study of Mr. Harper C. Donaldson. While feeling that the school program lacks adequate industrial training, Mr.

Walker commends the teaching staff for excellent academic work and states that the curriculum provides unusually good instruction and training for Christian service.

"The development in the pupils of ideals of Christian service has been one of our principal objectives this year. Early in the year Menaul sponsored a meeting of five groups of Spanish-speaking boys, selected from three schools and two churches in the vicinity of Albuquerque, called together by the local Y. M. C. A. for the study of problems peculiarly the responsibility of Christian Spanish-speaking boys in their home communities. It was inspiring to hear those boys tell how they had overcome great obstacles last summer in carrying on Christian work in their home towns. One boy had conducted prayer meetings regularly among the miners in a town in Colorado. Another, who began services in a secluded village with only two people present, had the delight before summer was over of seeing more than fifty attend his meetings. One boy's parents were angry at his becoming a Protestant, but before fall were permitting him to invite neighbors into the home for prayer meetings. All of these were Menaul boys."

The gospel team, which is now composed of forty boys, all of whom take part in the evangelistic services in neighboring towns has been more active this year than ever. Menaul students have gone a step further during the present school year in starting an association known as the "Ministerial Organization." This is composed of students who have decided to enter the ministry or who are considering doing so. There are at present twenty-three active members and three associates who have not yet made definite decisions. "Timateo C. Luna, of Taos, New Mexico, a student of Menaul several years ago, has been appointed Assistant State Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is one of the many Menaul students who hold positions of honor and responsibility in the state."

Allison-James School, Sante Fe. Miss Barber, principal of this boarding school of one hundred five girls, reports: "One of our goals for this year was the certification of our teachers by the New Mexico State Department of Education. Most of them now have all of their credits. Another goal was that Allison-James should be an accredited high school. To this end we have planned our high school schedule in consultation with the State High School Inspectors and hope to meet every requirement. . . . This year there has been an entire lack of antagonism to the religious teaching which we have formerly sometimes felt. During the recent evangelistic services most of the girls made a stand for Christ. There was no emotion shown, but each one seemed to take the step deliberately knowing what it meant. The Life Service Band has been reorganized on the new basis that only those who have made definite plans to enter Christian work are admitted to active membership. When asked for suggestions for a line of study, many of them expressed a desire to discuss the needs of their communities. Some of their suggestions were: 'How to do missionary work where a community has no preacher,' 'Needs in my own community for establishing a permanent Sunday-school,' 'Places in New Mexico where mission work is needed and where we can help,' 'How to teach little children better,' 'How we can start our mission work when we begin to teach,' and 'How to talk to encourage people and lead them to the truth'."

Day Schools, Community Centers, and Medical Work. Reports from the "plaza" stations of New Mexico are on the whole encouraging. At Holman a record enrollment of ninety-seven in day school has been made possible by the appointment of a third worker and the addition of a classroom to the little two-room school. Miss Bell writes: "The people have certainly shown their appreciation of and confidence in our school in that they contributed so much labor and money to the building of the new room and in their sending so many pupils, making the enrollment the largest the school has ever had.

At Chacon a community worker has been added to the staff of two day school teachers, and that line of work has become quite extensive. Three sewing classes are conducted every week, two for school girls and one for the women of the community. First aid has been given the injured and relief given the sick for miles around.

Miss Craig, at El Prado de Taos, is happy in her able young assistant, Miss Lurden Ortiz, a former pupil of the Allison-James School who not only shares in the work of the day school but has organized a weekly prayer meeting of neighbors.

Miss Sutherland, of Embudo Plaza School, writes: "Pupils of the grammar room are leading in prayer at the morning devotional period this year for the first time, and the ready response to requests for voluntary prayer is very gratifying."

Chimayo reports: "Our special classes outside of the regular day school and Sunday classes include: A Mother's Club of thirty-four members who meet for social times and lessons in better home making, care of children, and responsibility of motherhood, rug and quilt making, general sewing, and hygiene; a literary society, with an average of fifty members and others who enjoy the programs but do not care to take part, which has now developed three branches in other neighborhoods; and garden and poultry clubs which are proving to be of real value in teaching proper tillage of soil, raising of a variety of wholesome vegetables, and the cooking of these in the home. . . . After being asked for two years to start some form of Christian work in Cordova, six miles up in the hills, our Christian Endeavor Society took the matter up and organized a Sunday-school. The services held in the home of a friend of the work have an average attendance of forty-seven although only five Protestants live in the village. The superintendent himself is a Catholic. There is dire need for work there with open pool halls on Sunday, 'white mule' flowing freely, and Sunday dances."

Truchas Community Center reports a number of interesting special classes in addition to the regular school, church, and visiting nursing: a sewing class of forty-two girls where practical garments are made and good taste developed, a cooking class of fourteen older girls, a first-aid and simple home nursing class, and a recreation club of about fifty young men and boys which has met in the community house five evenings a week with an average attendance of twenty.

Brooklyn Cottage Hospital, Dixon. The two nurses at this well-equipped little dispensary and two-bed hospital, report the following for the year:

224 patients treated in their homes;
605 nursing visits made and 527 friendly calls;
2155 patients treated in the dispensary;
4 patients received care in the hospital;
1598 miles of mountain road were travelled with horse and buggy.

A most successful clean-up day was inaugurated in Dixon at the suggestion of Miss Yeats. "Everyone responded enthusiastically to the suggestion, and the Justice-of-the-Peace even went so far as to make a personal canvass of the entire district so that everyone would be sure to know what was expected of him. The morning of the appointed day we walked through the plaza and I believe there were at least fifty men out in the public road in and about the plaza and probably a dozen wagons to haul away the trash collected. When the work was finished the whole town had the appearance of having had the fine-tooth-comb used. You will remember there were some pig-pens in the middle of the plaza; these too were removed. Not only was Dixon put through a cleaning process, but the news spread to the neighboring plazas of Peñasco, Chamisal and Rinconada, and all followed the good example, cleaning up their towns in a very thorough manner. One of our friends who was driving through Velarde the other day with one of the leading Penitentes made the remark that Velarde needed a justice like the one at Dixon to make the people clean-up. The reply was: 'They do not need a justice so much as they need some missionaries'."

UTAH

In Utah work is carried on by the Woman's Board at Mt. Pleasant, where Wasatch Academy provides elementary work and a full high school course for eighty-three girls and one hundred twelve boys in the day school and boarding departments; at Logan, where New Jersey Academy, a home school for girls, provides elementary and secondary instruction; and at Ferron, Gunnison, Monroe, Panguitch, Salina and St. George, where community programs are maintained which include day schools varying in character from kindergarten to junior high school and many special clubs such as cooking, sewing, reading and hiking. As there are pastors in none of these last stations the missionaries have had the responsibility also for most of the religious activities. More effective work with young people of these small towns is a serious need. At Ferron an urgent appeal for a simple club and recreational room comes from both workers and young people themselves. Miss Donnelly reports that there are 28 enrolled in the high school class and all are making good progress. "Through the school the workers are able to reach a great many families and homes which they would be unable to reach otherwise. Clubs of various kinds are held in the afternoons and evenings, Glee Clubs for both boys and girls, classes for the little children, and athletics for the boys. One day a week the women meet together for an interesting program. There is also a social gathering once a month to which the husbands are invited."

New Jersey Academy, Logan. Miss Florence Stephenson, Principal Emeritus of the Asheville Home School, and for the past two years director of the work at New Jersey Academy, writes: "The class to be graduated in May is made up of five girls of substantial character and charming personality who are looking forward to college or professional work. The power of leadership in these young girls of the West amazes one and gives one pause when she considers what a dangerous gift, undirected, unsanctified, is this great initiative. We rejoice to see many of them taking the lead in the right direction. Last fall we felt deeply the loss of the six girls who had graduated. Now the present year's class has grown up to a fine standard of leadership."

MOUNTAIN FIELD

The Woman's Board has in the mountain field responsibility for nine boarding schools and fourteen community centers situated in Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and North Carolina. It is difficult to list these stations under any one of the three types of work. Smith, Kentucky, is a community center with work at four branches, but it has a small boarding school and is looking forward to a program of adult education in the near future. The work at Climax Springs, Missouri, and Cosby, Tennessee, should be classed primarily as community projects, but both of these stations have responded to the urgent appeal for day school work. Langdon Memorial School, Kentucky, is a boarding school for sixty girls, but its relation to the town of

Mt. Vernon, where it is located, is that of the center of the community's educational, social and religious activities.

With great advance in public education during the past few years and the pushing of the mining industry back into the mountain coves, old policies for the church's educational work in this field have had to give way to new in which emphasis has gradually shifted from technical elementary school work to a broader program of education for leadership carried out in boarding schools for older students and in a number of strategic communities through the development of a general desire for fuller living.

Asheville Normal and Associated Schools, Asheville, North Carolina. This group of schools consists of the Asheville Normal, with an enrollment the past year of two hundred fifty girls, Home School with one hundred thirty girls in grades six through nine, and Pease House for fifty-four little folks, on the one campus in Asheville, and Farm School, of elementary and high school grade for one hundred boys, fifteen miles from the city There is held also each year on the Asheville campus a summer normal school attended the past summer by fifteen hundred students and teachers from every state in the South.

All who visit the various units of this group are enthusiastic over the spirit of Christian service which they find there. Not only does this spirit guide and direct every activity of the schools, but it sets the goal for the life work of these young people. Such is the reputation for sound pedagogic training which the Normal has won that its graduates are in demand for the best of high-salaried city teaching positions, but such is the spirit of service to their own neglected mountain coves that many of its graduates each year go back to the one room mountain school to set up there a program for the community which will bring to these isolated families some of the advantages which they themselves have had at school. In the following from Pease House, one can see how the foundations for such spirit are being laid: "All of the little girls of ten or more years are members of the church or have publicly declared their allegiance to Jesus Christ and their intention of joining the home church. Every child is able to stand and lead in prayer before the group. They have developed an ability to report very creditably on the church service. It is a great delight to them when the Scripture reading or any part of the service happens to be something they have memorized or have been studying."

Farm School, North Carolina. Due to the fact that study is being made of the whole question as to how best to meet the needs of the boys of the mountains, the plants at the two schools for boys under the Woman's Board—Farm School and The Willows—fifty miles west, have for several years had few improvements with the result that buildings and equipment are below the minimum requirement for efficient work. But in spite of this handicap, reports of marked growth come from both schools. At Farm School athletics are being stressed and several hard won victories have done much to strengthen school spirit and to emphasize the value of team work. In literary work the school has had success also. It was a Farm School boy who won the North Carolina State contest for declamation last April. The school is not Farm School in name only. Here the mountain boy with a knowledge of only the most primitive methods of hillside farming has in addition to his classroom work in agricultural theory, practical experience and demonstration on the school's farm of nearly five hundred acres. Mr. Cralle, the principal, reports: "The week of prayer in which we had with us Dr. Frank Harl Huffman, of Baltimore, Maryland, was indeed a spiritual refreshing. Every boy in the institution except eight signified acceptance of Christ and his intention to unite with the church. The following week one of these remaining finished his fight and came out for church membership on Sunday night. It is our prayer that the others may be reached before the end of the year."

Dorland-Bell School, Hot Springs, N. C. Mr. Lindsay S. B. Hadley, who came to the school last spring as student pastor, has succeeded Miss Lucy Shafer, now on leave of absence, as superintendent of the combined work of Dorland-Bell, a boarding school for one hundred thirty girls and The Willows for fifty boys, two miles away. Both groups attend the same school at Dorland-Bell, the boys walking the four miles to and from school each day. "Numerous evidences lately of good spirit have encouraged us," writes Mr. Hadley of The Willows. "The boys have shown a fine sense of responsibility. A few days ago they themselves brought to conclusion an anti-tobacco campaign which has been carried on for several weeks. A few of our best older boys and many of the 'peanuts,' as the little ones style themselves, have been sneaking off behind the barn to indulge in the forbidden luxury of tobacco. Of their own accord a group of boys determined to stop it and have done so. This 'Clean Up Club' also insists upon clean language and clean habits. Not long ago the older boys, with the staff members concerned, settled a serious matter of mistreatment of the stock by some of the younger ones." Outside of school subjects covering eight grades the girls have intensive work in health, simple nursing, and sanitation with a resident nurse and in home-making in four practice cottages, where under the supervision of a teacher, lessons in foods, cooking, laundry work, sewing and household budget-making are put to practical application. Mr. Hadley writes: "We try to emphasize unceasingly the fact that education means doing one's best for one's self and others, without anyone's standing over to watch. And many of the girls and boys have caught the spirit of it. Two girls have the Beginners' and Primary classes of the village Sunday-school. Two boys have a Sunday afternoon Sabbath-school at a tiny church near The Willows where they are working up something really worth while."

Laura Sunderland School, Concord, North Carolina. This boarding school of seventy-five students from one of the largest mill sections of the South, offering grade work from the fourth through the eighth, has stood for as high a type of leadership as can be found anywhere. With Miss Melissa Montgomery's withdrawal, last January, from the principalship, which she held for twenty-eight years, the school loses a personality whose Christian influence on the young people about her and whose force in the community and over a wide territory, will be difficult, if not impossible, to replace.

Mossop School for Girls, Harriman, Tennessee. Mossop School opened in September in the beautiful new building, made possible through the Sage Legacy, housing dormitory, dining room, kitchen and class rooms. Junior high school work is offered in addition to grade work above the fifth. All but two pupils are from districts in the Tennessee mountains where no school facilities whatever were available.

Langdon Memorial School, Mt. Vernon, Kentucky. Here sixty girls from mountain homes learn by doing. School here, of grades from four through ninth, is not a preparation for life; it is life, and life lived to the fullest in the school group and in the village community. Miss Stewart, the principal, reports: "Eighth and ninth grade Langdon girls are holding positions as officers in County and District C. E. Unions and these offices have been bestowed upon them because of their ability as leaders and organizers. One of our Langdon girls conducted the singing at a recent Sunday school conference and daily directs the chorus in the fifth grade of our public school, where the teacher is not qualified to do it. During the holidays over half of our students made arrangements for and conducted Christmas exercises in their own communities, in school house or home or church and either put it through themselves or trained a group to assist them in presenting the Christmas story. A mountain woman told me of the work of one of our graduates in her community. After dwelling at length upon her sewing classes, her Christian Endeavor Society and her two Sunday-schools, she concluded with, 'There isn't e'er a preacher in all these parts can preach like B——.' These and a hundred other incidents show us that our students are developing into leaders of no ordinary ability. . . . I know you will be interested in hearing about our Daily Vacation Bible School. It is truly thrilling. Baptists, Disciples and Presbyterians are meeting daily in the Baptist Church, the Christian minister teaching a class composed of almost equal numbers from the three denominations. There are about one hundred in attendance at all classes held in the two churches and at the school, and I never saw such enthusiasm. The most interesting feature in all is the large adult attendance. I have twenty men and women in my Bible class, some of whom stay for the nursing course and demonstration or basketry and manual training. Health subjects, too, are receiving much attention."

COMMUNITY STATIONS

Smith and Branch Stations, Kentucky. "We now have five centers, Smith, Cawood, Hurst, Browneys Creek with its new cabin, and Cranks and Mill Creek, with a cabin that has been loaned to us without rent. In all these centers our work can be classified under five headings:

1. Educational: Building up the country schools by developing regular attendance, introducing supplementary books, cooperating with the teacher and patrons in every way possible, making buildings more comfortable, getting toilets and coal sheds built, trying to beautify grounds, and taking books and papers into the homes.
2. Health work under the direction of a graduate nurse.
3. Recreation: Picnics, hikes, rides, sings, parties, games, story telling, informal dramatics, suppers—all sorts of good times that make for comradeship and better community spirit.
4. Friendly visiting and real neighborliness.
5. Religious Education: Eight Eunday-schools have been held—Browneys Creek, Avondale, Hensley, Hurst, Cawood, Cranks and a new one at Mill Creek."

There is no pastor for these stations and preaching services, unfortunately, are held only occasionally.

Wooton Community Center and Branches, Kentucky. The "desperate, hopeless mountain cove," which described Wooton less than seven years ago, is now a center for seven points at which thriving Sunday schools and Christian Endeavor Societies have been organized. "We have been able to help more with the public schools in outlying districts, because wherever we have a Sunday school established and running well, people begin to want a trained teacher for the public school also." The following list, taken from her annual report, gives a hint of Miss McCord's well-rounded program: Bible or Training for service class, Mission Study, Woman's Missionary Society, Christian Endeavor, Sewing, Cooking, Manual Training and Weaving, Boy Scouts, Junior Agriculture Club, Parent Teacher Association,

Community Improvement League, and Health Work of resident nurse with special clinics by visiting physicians.

Rocky Fork, Flag Pond, Tennessee. The addition to the regular community program of an aggressive campaign for better health was the result of the appointment of a nurse early in the year. Now a well equipped dispensary has been added to the plant by Washington Presbyterial Society, and plans for even greater service are being laid.

Community work in West Virginia under the Woman's Board has centered in the Coal River Valley and, with the exception of Dry Creek, a scattered rural community, and Colcord, where community work was established after the burning of the Pattie C. Stockdale School a year ago, work is in the coal mining towns of Montcoal, Dorothy and Brush Creek. It is hoped that with the rebuilding of the Pattie Stockdale School, these stations may be made a part of a united program of education which shall embrace not only training at the school of promising young men and women for active Christian work, but definite community projects in which the students shall take active part as part of their practical training.

Work in Missouri is confined to three community stations in the Ozarks—Proctor, Osage Iron Works and Climax Springs. Osage Iron Works is reaching a primitive isolated section of the hills in reopening work at Standing Rock, fifteen miles away. "The Bible School and social events are held in the little white schoolhouse close to the road. The building is fairly good but terribly crowded when a large number try to get inside. It is interesting to note the interest taken by the mothers. One of them comes miles on her horse, carrying her baby. . . . We are anxious to open up work at the Mt. Sanai schoolhouse. There is a fine group of young people there, bright and alert. They have never had any Sunday-school instruction and are more than eager to have social times. We are planning to meet with them soon to discuss plans."

The year held two outstanding events for Climax Springs, the little hill town a day's journey by mail car and wagon from the nearest railroad. The first was the building by the people themselves of a concrete two-room church, dedicated in November. "It was a glad day for us here at Climax. In spite of unfavorable weather, about two hundred fifty were present." The second event was the opening of a high school in the Sunday school room of the new church for fourteen boys and girls of the community who had completed the eighth grade, but for whom the town offered no further opportunity for study. "Intense interest has been manifested in the school by patrons as well as students. Besides furnishing all the wood, the community gave fifty dollars for equipment for the school, and the pupils pay two dollars a month."

PORTO RICO

Presbyterian Hospital, San Juan. It is hard to realize that the wonderful new hospital building of which Presbyterian women have so justly been proud should after only six years be proving totally inadequate to meet the demands made upon it. Every one of its seventy beds has a waiting list; its school of nursing is crowded in dormitory space and in classroom quarters; its clinic of over forty-two thousand patients has taxed the waiting room, the dressing room, the doctors' offices to the limit. A total of 44,064 patients is the record for the year with many hundreds turned away. With the erection of a nurses' home, space in the hospital which they now occupy could be released for additional hospital and clinic service. A first step was taken toward such a plan of enlargement when a $70,000 piece of property adjoining the hospital was recently secured. Graduates of the hospital's School of Nursing are winning wide recognition for efficiency of professional work and cooperative Christian spirit. The school now boasts an alumnae association, the aims of which are to cooperate with the school in maintaining high standards of professional ethics, to take an interest in all educational and public welfare activities, an so to live as to be an inspiration to the students of the school. Of the seventy-five active members of the newly organized association of Registered Nurses of Porto Rico; forty-seven are graduates of the School of Nursing of the Presbyterian Hospital.

Dr. Curtis Galt completed his year of internship in June, 1923, and is now in Yumasfu, China, under the Presbyterian Foreign Board. Dr. Douglas Collier of Denver, Colorado, intern for the present year plans to go to India in 1925.

One of the doctors writes: "In most cases a study of the economic status of the patient is as necessary as that of her physical ailment. A woman came to the dispensary suffering from a tropical disease the only cure being a milk diet. She was told to drink two liters of milk a day, which at current rates in Porto Rico would cost her fifty cents. Her husband's wages were seventy cents per day and she had four children! The same day another woman came to the dispensary from a distant town with her small daughter. It was found that the mother needed an immediate operation. She had no one to send her daughter home with and if she took her herself she would not have money enough to return. . . . Much interest is shown in the daily preaching in the dispensary and in the Sunday service. Last week a man walked into the dispensary from a town in the interior and asked, not for medical treatment, but for another one of the Gospels that his daughter might read to him. He had been given a paper-covered copy of the Gospel of St. John at a previous visit."

Marina Neighborhood House, Mayaguez. While church and community work in the Marina are a unit, that part dealing with education, recreation, social work, and health is under the direction of the Woman's Board. There have been added to the regular work of dispensary, clubs, day nursery, kindergarten, primary and industrial schools, special lectures and circulating library, the additional activities of visiting nursing by a newly appointed graduate nurse, supervision of the uptown church's kindergarten of fifty children, and a boarding department of seven girls in training for Christian social service work with kindergarten training as a basis.

Aguadilla. Here, too, the regular community program with its clubs, clinic and special classes, has been augmented by the appointment of a graduate nurse. She not only works among the children of the mission's kindergarten, primary and industrial school and through these into the homes which need her, but is reaching all the children of Aguadilla through the invitation from the Public Health Commissioner to give special health talks to all grades in the public schools. She writes: "Last month I tried the demonstration plan with lectures to the Home Economics classes in the High School. I was asked to give each group of girls a series of three talks on the 'Care of Babies.' I borrowed one of our one hundred per cent. babies from our day nursery to illustrate methods of care, clothing, etc., to them. They certainly gave me (and the baby) undivided attention."

CUBA

The Board is to be congratulated upon its acquisition of the Cardenas school, a day and boarding school. For several years this school has been financed jointly by the Woman's Board and the Executive Committee of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and it is with deep appreciation of the confidence which the Presbyterian Church South has had in the Woman's Board that that Board accepted September first the responsibility of carrying on a work initiated and fostered with such great vision. With the acquisition of this school at Cardenas of Junior college grade with an enrollment of over five hundred students, the Woman's Board now has charge of nine schools in Cuba, two besides that at Cardenas being of high school grade, the Kate Plumer Bryan Memorial, with an enrollment of one hundred fifty-eight boys and girls and the Sancti Spiritus School of one hundred eighty-two. The other six carry grade work only and are at Havana, Vedado, Neuva Paz, Caibarien, Camajuani and Cabaiguan.

At Cardenas a much needed dormitary for between forty and fifty boys is being erected; at Sancti Spiritus a building to house both grade work and high school will be ready for use at the beginning of the next school year, and at Cabaiguan ground has been purchased for the erection of a school and workers' home.

Cuba has had a remarkable revival of interest in things spiritual this spring which has resulted in a definite stand for Christ and union with the church by forty-one pupils. From a letter from a teacher at Sancti Spiritus we read: "We have just had one of the greatest revivals I have ever attended. Sixty of our pupils became Christians and a goodly number of their parents and other members of their families." Cabaiguan sends the same good news of awakened interest: "There is a noticeably greater devotion and love for the Bible. Thirty of our children accepted Christ in the Evangelistic services just closed. Two and a half years ago none of the children were members of the church; now there are ten. Then none of the children owned a Bible; now every child from the third grade up owns his Bible and carries it to his home with his other books. The majority of our children will lead in prayer. It would move your hearts to hear them praying for the new school building."

Work in Cuba continues to be sadly handicapped by lack of adequate buildings. Rents are high and buildings suitable for school purposes hard to find. That reports show steady progress and increased enrollment is due to the splendid spirit of an unusually strong teaching force which refuses to let inconvenience and even actual discomfort stand in the way of accomplishment.

SANTO DOMINGO

A special deputation consisting of members of the Board for Christian Work in Santo Domingo and experts in education and medical work visited Santo Domingo in February. All were enthusiastic over the progress made in three years in the evangelistic and medical work, the first phases of the fourfold interdenominational program of evangelistic, medical, educational and social, to be established in the island.

Work is now carried on in the Capital, Santo Domingo City, in San Pedro de Macoris, in LaRomana, in San Cristobal, and in two rural communities. "One is in a district called Las Pajas, two and a half hours up the river by motor boat from San Pedro de Macoris. Services are held in the home of one of the principal farmers of that district. The other rural work is out from San Cristobal in a section called Najayo. Here the services were held in the open air until the people of the community got together and built a palm leaf shelter. Practically the whole neighborhood has been won and there is great enthusiasm among the believers."

Medical work comprises regular hospital service in a twenty-five bed hospital, dispensary work, including a baby clinic, district nursing, and a nurses' training school. As there is great need for native nurses and a program of constructive health work in the island this last department represents one of the most important phases of the Board's work in Santo Domingo. Eight Dominican girls are registered—girls chosen for their special qualities of Christian leadership.

The visiting deputation strongly recommends that the Board for Christian Work in Santo Domingo enlarge its medical work and take immediate steps to open up social and educational work in the capital.

This is the last report that the Woman's Board of Home Missions will make. The mission field for which it was responsible is now a part of the work of the Board of National Missions and the report of this work will hereafter be from that Board. Let us think of it as our Board. The same schools and hospitals are committed to the woman's missionary organization for their gifts of love, and money and prayer.

As we face our task let us remember the "faith of our mothers" —those missionary women of fifty years ago who ventured forth "not knowing whither they went"—and realize that they "apart from us cannot be made perfect." The full fruit of their labor is in our keeping. May we as nobly meet our day and opportunities as they did theirs!

We thank our Heavenly Father for His loving kindness and tender leadership throughout the years and pray for His richest blessing upon the Board of National Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCY H. DAWSON,
General Secretary.
